THIRTY-SEVENTH YEAR

TOTAL VOTE CAST
IS 21,166

Nearly 4,000 Less Than Estimate

OFFICIAL COUNT ANNOUNCED

Adams Wins for Coroner Over
Smith on Draw

Complete final official figures of the vote in the city and county, the totals for men and measures and the majorities will be found on page Four.

Estimates on the total number of votes that would be cast in the election were proven awry by the actual figures, ascertained by the official count, completed Thursday night by the board of elections of Allen-co.

The total for the entire county is 21,166. Divided, the city cast 11,521 and the remainder of the county 9,645. It was estimated at the most conservative figure that at least 25,000 votes would be cast in the entire county. The total two years ago was about 27,000.

When it was considered that 1,100 names of new voters had been added in the city alone, it was considered altogether likely that the total would reach at least 25,000.

WINS A DRAW

In the last analysis, it was found that Dr. A. C. Adams, Republican, candidate for reelection as coroner, and Dr. Frank Smith, his Democratic opponent, had received exactly the same number of votes, 9,493. There was but one way to decide which should be declared elected.

C. A. Stodd, Democrat, and William Koebe, Republican, members of the board, drew lots to decide which should draw first from a hat in which two slips of paper had been placed each bearing the name of one of the candidates. Stodd, the Democratic member won the draw and extracted the slip bearing the name of Adams. Dr. Adams was declared elected.

But both official majority over N. W. Basing for treasurer was increased by the unofficial to 45 while C. C. Miller, Democrat, for representative, cut down the majority of his opponent, W. E. Baxter to 1. C. C. Miller, Democrat, for clerk, drew a reelection, was given a majority of 5,216. Judge Phil Crow, Democrat, for court of appeals was given a plurality in the county of 4,788.

The official count boosted Donahue's majority over Thompson to 2,644. All figures of the unofficial total were changed by the final tally and certification of the ballot boxes.

DEMOCRATS LEAD

Bloom, Democrat, for lieutenant governor was given a majority over his Republican opponent of 3,874. Fulton, Democrat, for secretary of state won in the county over his opponent by 122. Young, Democrat, for attorney general, was given a majority of 175 over Crabbe, his Republican opponent.

A study of the election table proves interesting. Cable's majority over Goeke, for congress, was boosted slightly to 3,737. For the most part all majorities as appearing in the unofficial list were increased in the final.

The board of elections was engaged Friday in checking up expenses issuing vouchers and clearing up the odds and ends in connection with the business of conducting an election.

MURDER MYSTERY IS PROBED

Men Grilled by Officials Investigating Cleveland Killing

CLEVELAND—(Associated Press)—Police and County Prosecutor Edward C. Stanton this morning were questioning two men and a woman in connection with the mysterious murder of Mrs. Helen Silberman in her home here May 12. The woman is said to have implicated one of the men.

Through the early morning Prosecutor Stanton and detectives grilled a man who has been convicted of robbing a man and is now being held at the county jail. The woman was also questioned, but in the same room with the man, and then separately.

A man now serving time in the Columbus penitentiary upon conviction for his part in the same robbery was brought here late yesterday and questioned in the room where the questioning was conducted. The convict was later questioned by the officers.

Mrs. Silberman, the wife of Aaron Silberman, broker and theater owner, was found beaten unconscious and died a few minutes later. Diamond rings she had worn were missing. Her husband has offered a reward of $5,000 for the arrest of her slayer.

MERCHANTS WILL POLICE CITY

PARTY DANGER SIGNALS SHOWN

(BY LAWRENCE MARTIN)

WASHINGTON—(United Press)—Danger signals showed for both political parties in Tuesday's election—signals that were not lost on party leaders, who in appraising the results of the voting have been impressed with the breaking away of the people from party beliefs and the "straight ticket."

A greater independence of party lines was shown this year than for many elections. Examples of this were the Massachusetts, Ohio and Nebraska results. Governor Cox carried Massachusetts by a good majority while his Republican running mate, Senator Lodge, barely squeezed thru. A Democratic governor was elected in Ohio, yet Senator Pomerene, Democrat, was overwhelmingly defeated.

In Nebraska the same thing occurred, the voters "scratching" Senator Hitchcock, Democrat, while voting for C. W. Bryan, Democrat, for governor.

This independence is but one of the problems put up to party leaders, which promise to make the coming two years full of political "jazz." The most immediate of these problems is that of getting the Harding administration's legislative program fairly well completed before the new Congress comes in. Recognizing the certainty that Republican proposals will have hard sledding after next March, President Harding has called congress into special session for November 20. He wants to get the appropriation bills and other necessary legislation out of the way before March 4, and then prevent congress being in session very much during the remainder of his term.

This would keep hostile Democrats, newly elected, from making trouble. Other election results likely to leave their impression on the next two years include.

Tremendous "pepping up" of Democrats for 1924 and the beginning of booms for Democratic presidential candidates, chiefly Al Smith, elected governor of New York.

A boom of progressive stock, because the progressives will be able to control both house and senate in the next congress.

Increased power of the farm bloc in both house and senate, instead of the bloc, as the administration hoped.

Many places for new leaders in both Republican and Democratic parties. The Republicans must choose a new house leader and the Democrats a new one in the senate.

There is gossip that Senator Lodge may retire as Republican senate leader, but this is gossip, nothing more and it is unlikely that he will either resign voluntarily or be forced out at present.

Made the wet and dry question a live issue and made it certain that it will be one of the chief issues in 1924.

Revived the Newberry case. Gave new impetus to the soldier bonus demand.

There will therefore be "no adjournment of politics", but rather an increase of political activity in the government with the Republicans trying hard to come back in 1924 and the Democrats trying to consolidate and extend their gains.

EMERGENCY FORCE TO BE ORGANIZED

Action Taken When Administration Cuts Protection

RESIDENTS OF LIMA WARNED

Financial Condition Unequal to Situation

Within three hours after the city commission had ordered a drastic cut in the city police and fire departments, Lima merchants had placed plans on foot to create an emergency police force to protect downtown property.

At a meeting of the Better Business Bureau at the Barr Hotel a motion was presented to the membership and adopted that details of a merchant police be worked out and put in effect by November 15.

It is planned to have the policemen released by the city to go to work for the new organization at once in order that business property of the city be protected from the anticipated operations of yeggs.

While no definite arrangement has been agreed upon it is believed the men will work under a separate head but will be in touch with the police department at all times thru the police call boxes.

There are a variety of duties to be done. Patrolling of the beats, turning out of lights, patrolling of stores to look for fires or thieves and minor detective work are included.

COSTS ASSESSED

Costs of such an organization will be assessed against each merchant in proportion to the number of the services he desires and will be paid direct to the organization, giving the men the same salary they would receive as regular policemen.

C. A. Bingham, city manager, has agreed to the plan as it has provided a fund and has short talk to the merchants Thursday night told them such an arrangement is the only hope they have for protection.

Meetings of the board of governors of the Better Business Bureau will be held as soon as possible and various plans discussed for working out the merchant police system.

Practic cuts in the police, fire and other departments of the city were decided upon by members of the city commission in a special meeting here Thursday.

The matter of the fire department was again taken up Friday when Bingham called Chief John Mack into conference with him. Tentative orders were issued at the time to prepare for a one third cut in the size and operation of the department. This will mean, it was said, that stations number 4, 5 and 6 will be closed shortly unless the odds are contended.

Edward Ryan, central station fireman was ordered released at once and C. H. Tracewell, central station, was ordered to make application to be retired on a pension. This cuts two men from the payroll there.

These orders follow close upon a recommendation by fire underwriters that the force here be increased by twelve men.

Definite orders to make the cuts effective will be issued following a meeting of the city commission Monday night, it is believed.

While it had been felt that no changes should be made until the first of the year the depleted condition of the city treasury, made necessary an immediate cut in forces. Bingham said following the meeting.

Patrolmen Mills, Good and Roche, recently appointed to the force, will be relieved of their jobs November 15 and if they so desire will be taken on into the merchant police organization.

CUT TO 20

A further cut of the force to approximately 20 men, rather than the 32 men now employed has also been ordered. A similar cut in the fire department will take place as soon as a survey of the absolute needs has been made.

Adoption by the citizens of the two mill levy would have made these cuts unnecessary, Bingham pointed out, but since the people have voted for decreased expenditures and service the commission can do nothing but follow their orders.

Other departments affected are the street cleaning and repair and the lighting and engineering forces. Street Superintendent Dick will be given an indefinite leave of absence as will General Inspector Kruse.

When all cuts are completed there will be one man on each of the following jobs: boulevard lights, sewer taps, parks and zoo, emergency repairs and one man working part time cleaning Market and Main-sts.

Gas and street lights will be decreased to the minimum stated in the contracts with the Ohio Power Co. and the Lima Gas Co., Bingham said. A cut in the engineering force is impending, it is believed. Summing up the series of cuts in

ARMISTICE PARADE IN READINESS

BOMBS TO SIGNAL EVENT

City Will Pay Respects to Heroes of War

Lima and Allen-co is all set to observe Armistice Day.

Without a doubt the feature of the day will be the huge parade Saturday afternoon.

Organization of the various societies and groups which will take part in the parade has been completed and was announced by the chamber of commerce Friday morning.

The parade will be divided into four divisions each under the command of assistant marshals acting under Colonel John Harley, grand marshal of the day.

Each of the divisions will assemble in a separate street from the others in order that there may be no confusion and that enough room for the many persons and floats will be provided.

Division one will form on Elizabeth-st. between High and North-sts. It will face southward and will be ready to start along the line of march as soon as the whistle blows.

MANY INCLUDED

Organizations included are as follows: Grand Marshal and staff, Police Department, American Legion Drum Corps, Ex-Servicemen, Ex-Servicewomen including Red Cross nurses, Alumnae of the City Hospital, Ladies Auxiliary of the American Legion float, Red Cross float, St. Rita's hospital nurse, City nurses, Infantry and Artillery companies, Colored Band, Colored Ex-Servicemen, Salvation Army marching band and the Salvation Army float.

In the second division, which will form on North-st. west of Elizabeth-st. facing east, will be the following groups:

G. A. R. float, Women's Relief Corps and Ladies of the G. A. R. float, G. A. R. drum corps, D. A. V. float, K. of C. float, K. of C. marching band, Pythian Sisters float, K. of P. marching band in full uniform, Armistice club, Girl Scouts, Moose float, Delphos band, Moose Drill team, Women of Mooseheart legion and the Mooseheart Legion men.

North-st. between Elizabeth and Main-sts. has been selected as the meeting place for the third division. They will form facing the west and will follow immediately after the second division. Groups in it are:

Garfield float, Solar float, Lady Macabees float, U. C. marching band, Royal Neighbors float, Y. M. C. A. float, Elks float, Elks band, Elks marching band and the two P. H. C. uniformed organizations.

In the fourth division, which will form on Elizabeth-st. north of North-st. and face south, will be the P. H. C. float, the Fire department, the ambulance two floats of the Lima Sheet Metal Products Co., Green & Green Co. float and other floats which have not been assigned places.

Line of march as laid out will be as follows south on Elizabeth-st. to Kibby-st. east to Main-st. north to North-st. west to Elizabeth-st. and there disband.

Boy Scouts will patrol the line of march and act as traffic regulators.

REVIEW STAND

A reviewing stand for Gold Star mothers, city officials and other guests will be placed in the southeast corner of the Public Square. The mothers of those who lost their lives in the World War will be especially honored.

Bombs will be used to stop the parade and to indicate that the two minutes of reverence for the dead is to start. Four bombs will be used as follows:

One bomb will stop the parade as soon as the head of it reaches the intersection of High and Main-st. The second bomb will indicate that all are to turn to the east. A third bomb will be the order for the marchers to left face and the fourth bomb will be the signal for the parade to resume. The bombs will be

DISPUTE ON HOME REVEALS POLYGON

Society Favorite and Movie Actor Husband Involved in Love Tangle

LOS ANGELES (Special)—Were it not for a dispute over their $20,000 home, there might never have been charged that a love-polygon exists, whose main points are alleged to be taken up by Anita Gibson Finigan, society favorite, and her husband, Raymond F. Finigan, movie actor.

Inability to decide on the disposition of the home, say attorneys in the case, forced the quarrel into the courts and brought out names of others who are said to occupy the corners of this many-sided polygon.

Finigan, who is known to the picture world as Ray Hanford, has filed cross-suit against the former society belle of Oakland, Cal., and has named Frederick B. Warren, wealthy New York miller, and William Harrison Clem, Indian oil magnate, as co-respondents. Several other names are added.

Clem, dapper, striking and well known in California, Kansas and Oklahoma, is said to be a scion of the Osage tribe, enriched by oil royalties. Finigan charges Clem accompanied his wife on a deer hunt unchaperoned.

Similarly Finigan accuses Warren of lavishing money upon his wife, Mrs. Finigan, on the other hand, alleges cruelty, violent temper and even threats of death. Each makes a bitter denial of the complaints and plans to fight the action to the end.

CINCINNATI MAN IS SLAIN BY BOY BANDIT

CINCINNATI—John Berens, 37 years old, shipping clerk at the L. Weinberg bakery, this city, was killed today by a fourteen year old negro bandit who with a sixteen year old negro companion, entered the bakery and covered six men employees with revolvers. Berens was shot when he tried to seize the boy.

After the shooting the robbers rushed from the store without having obtained any money.

SUIT TO COLLECT BAIL

CLEVELAND—County officials today prepared a suit to collect the $,000 bail forfeited when Ausley Champion failed to appear Thursday to answer to an indictment charging assault with intent to kill. Champion is the husband of Mrs. Mabel Champion facing a 20-year sentence for killing Thomas O'Connell.

DRYS ARE HAPPY

Contest in Ohio Paramount, Leader Declares

WESTERVILLE—(Associated Press)—Results of Tuesday's election in Ohio, in which the wet and dry issue was involved, are more important than the results in all other wet and dry elections in the United States. It was asserted here today by Dr. Ernest H. Cherrington, general secretary of the World League Against Alcoholism.

The way Ohio went is of "tremendous" importance in the continuation of American prohibition and the world dry movement, Dr. Cherrington declared.

The dries, if they had been compelled to could profitably have given the wets all the other contests in which the issue figured, on the bargain that Ohio go as it did," Cherrington continued.

He said the beer and wine issue was tested out in this state because it is the home of the Anti-Saloon League, the home of the World League Against Alcoholism, the birthplace of the W. C. T. U., the Intercollegiate Prohibition Association and other dry organizations and in addition, because it is the home of the president of the United States.

Had the wets won, Dr. Cherrington contended, it would have meant the dries were defeated in their own headquarters.

OPPOSE TURK RULE

NEW YORK—Plans for a letter shower calling on officials Washington to take necessary steps "to put an end to Turkish rule over Christians" were announced today by the American committee for the independence of Armenia, of which James W. Gerard, former ambassador to Germany, is chairman.

SUIT TO COLLECT BAIL

CLEVELAND—County officials today prepared a suit to collect the $,000 bail forfeited when Ausley Champion failed to appear Thursday to answer to an indictment charging assault with intent to kill. Champion is the husband of Mrs. Mabel Champion facing a 20-year sentence for killing Thomas O'Connell.

With complete returns having assured the election of A. V. Donahay as governor and Congressman S. D. Fess to the United States senate earlier in the day, Miss Allen's election did not appear a certainty until last night when with only 327 of the state's 8,184 precincts out, she held a lead of 22,469 votes over her nearest opponent, Benson W. Hough.

Robert H. Day of Canton, led the five candidates of whom two were elected.

DEMOCRAT TO BE LIEUT. GOVERNOR

Defeats William Chatfield by Majority of 13,268

SIX WOMEN GO TO ASSEMBLY

Many County Offices Are Captured by Females

COLUMBUS—(Associated Press)—Former Lieutenant Governor Earl D. Bloom, Democrat, of Bowling Green, has been elected lieutenant governor of Ohio, defeating William H. Chatfield, Republican, of Cincinnati.

With only 66 precincts missing from the entire state early today, Bloom had an unofficial majority of 13,268.

Chatfield's total vote was 711,028, Bloom's 757,296.

Common Pleas Judge Florence E. Allen of Cleveland, elected to a seat on the supreme court bench along with Judge Robert H. Day, Republican, increased her lead over Benson W. Hough, Republican, to 27,199 early today, as additional returns were tabulated. With only 229 precincts missing the vote was:

Allen 193,022; Hough 465,823.

The missing precincts on both court can make no material difference in the results.

DEMOCRATIC GAINS

Definite settlement of practically all contests in Tuesday's election today found considerably more Democrats holding places in the state and national governments than they have since the Republican landslide of 1920, which left the followers of Thomas Jefferson only a meager representation either at the state capital or in the congressional delegation at Washington.

Other specific results of the Democratic efforts to stage a comeback in Ohio were the election of A. V. Donahay as governor, the sending of six Democratic congressmen to Washington to replace an equal number of Republicans and a slight increase in the number of Democrats on the rolls of the state senate and house of representatives.

REPUBLICAN SOUVAGE

To offset this, however, Allen Pomerene, prominent in his party councils and mentioned as a presidential possibility in 1924, was defeated in his fight for reelection to the United States senate. Republicans also were finding solace in the fact that the state legislature still remained preponderantly Republican.

Democrats expressed gratification in their accomplishments, but they were not alone in their jubilation, for Ohio women's organizations and the Anti-Saloon League were pleased with the outcome.

The election of Common Pleas Judge Florence E. Allen of Cleveland to a seat on the Ohio supreme court bench, the placing of six women in the general assembly and the election of numerous others to county offices, all were regarded as triumphs for the initial fight of women for places in the government.

The Anti-Saloon League pointed with satisfaction to the makeup of the Ohio congressional delegation. Advocates of strict enforcement of the Volstead act lost only one seat in congress so far as Ohio is concerned. It was said by James A. White, of the dry organization.

BLOOM STILL LEADING

With complete returns having assured the election of A. V. Donahay as governor and Congressman S. D. Fess to the United States senate earlier in the day, Miss Allen's election did not appear a certainty until last night when with only 327 of the state's 8,184 precincts out, she held a lead of 22,469 votes over her nearest opponent, Benson W. Hough.

FIGHT ON BANDITS LED BY WOMAN

Helps to Smash Two Desperate New York Gangs

ONE KILLED IN BATTLE

Daring Female Proves Puzzle to Police Officers

NEW YORK—(United Press)—One man was killed and two desperate criminal gangs were declared broken up when 100 policemen in commandeered taxicabs, led by a woman in a limousine, staged a running battle with bandits shortly before last midnight in lower Manhattan.

The thugs were charged with three kidnappings and liquor thefts. Scores of shots were exchanged.

The chase ended when the woman who joined the chase "for the fun of it", and refused to identify herself to police, they said, chased one fugitive into a Chinese laundry and captured him as he was attempting to buy a disguise.

Police today sought a notorious gunman known as "Mike the Bum," who is alleged to have led the bandit gangs that staged the thefts and kidnappings which set down town New York in an uproar last night.

BOOTLEGGERS KIDNAPED

The robbers, according to information to police, made arrangements to purchase 50 gallons of alcohol from bootleggers near an east side garage. After they had loaded the alcohol, they yanked the bootleggers into their car and started racing away. One kidnaped man jumped and gave the alarm.

Reserves from the Mercer and Fifth-st police stations commanded taxicabs and started after the bandits in massed formation. Pursuers and pursued raced thru streets with the roar of motor exhausts mingling with pistol volleys.

Andrew Michaels, laborer, alleged to have been in a bandit car, toppled to the street, a bullet thru his head. He died immediately after reaching a hospital.

WOMAN TAKES LEAD

Policeman Eugene O'Connor and other officers who took part in the fight, were at a loss to understand why the "mystery woman" took the lead in the chase after the outlaws.

She was fashionably dressed and wore expensive furs, the police said. Before they knew what was going on, she raced in ahead of the police cars, taking dangerous chances time and again.

A dozen times her car swerved around corners on two wheels as she dashed back and forth on side streets, heading off the escape of the fleeing men and apparently unmindful of the revolver volleys.

Two men, alleged to have been captured as they jumped from the bandit car, were held in jail today.

TWO HANG SELVES

NEW YORK—(United Press)—Two prisoners hanged themselves in the same cell at police headquarters early today.

The men, Pons Gonzales, an actor and Abraham Goodbridge, a laborer, were cut down unconscious and are in a critical condition in Bellevue hospital.

They had been arrested, on a charge of extortion, and were being held.

They got rid of their attendant by asking for a glass of water. When the attendant returned he found the men hanging by strips of their shirts, fastened with belts to the iron car ceiling of the cell.

BATTLE IN DUBLIN

Heavy Firing Takes Place—Civilians Are Killed

DUBLIN—(Associated Press)—Heavy firing took place in various parts of the city during the night. The irregulars renewed their attack upon Wellington military barracks and also fired upon the Portobello barracks. The early morning hours were made more hideous by the rattle of machine guns.

Two civilians were found dead on a suburban road and two soldiers lay wounded this morning in the center of the city.

G. O. P. HOLDS RULE OF CONGRESS

Has Majority of 17 in the New House

CONTROLS SENATE BY TEN

Change of Party Affiliation Alters Lineup

WASHINGTON. — (Associated Press.)—There will be twenty more Republicans than Democrats in the next house of representatives and eleven more Republicans than Democrats in the new senate, unless results indicated today by practically complete returns are overturned.

In the house the Republican majority over the combined Democratic and scattering vote will be seventeen, while in the senate it will be ten.

In the present congress the Republicans have a house plurality of 166 over the Democrats and a majority of 165 over all. In the senate the Republican majority over the Democrats is 24, with no scattering votes.

LINEUP CHANGED
The lineup of the new house heretofore listed including 225 Republicans and 207 Democrats, was changed to 226 Republicans and 206 Democrats today thru a change in technical party affiliation by one of the successful candidates in Tuesday's election.

Representative Guy E. Campbell of the thirty-sixth Pennsylvania district, who in the past two campaigns has run as a "Republican Democrat," but who has been carried heretofore on the official membership roll as a Democrat, requested the house clerk to list him hereafter as a Republican.

The request was complied with making the party division of the new congress as compared with the present division as follows:

Present congress: Senate: Republicans 60; Democrats 36. Total 96.

New congress, senate: Republicans 53; Democrats 42; Farmer-Labor 1. Total 96.

Present congress, house: Republicans 226; Democrats 130; Socialist 1; Vacancies 3; Independent 1. Total 435.

New congress, house: Republicans 226; Democrats 206; Farmer-Labor 1. Total 435.

SHIFTS IN TOTALS
In addition to these changes all of which became effective after the sixty-seventh congress expires on March 4, next, there will be some immediate shifts in the totals thru the filling of vacancies at Tuesday's election. There were eight vacancies in the present house, due to deaths and resignations, and the unofficial returns show that of these, eight seats the Republicans captured six—the sixth California, Illinois at large, the sixteenth Massachusetts, the first and sixth Nebraska and the eleventh Pennsylvania—while Democratic nominees won in the third North Carolina and seventh Tennessee.

There were no upsets in the result, altho the seat of former Representative Reavis, Republican, first Nebraska district, went to R. P. Thorpe, Republican, for the remainder of the present term, while John H. Moorehead, Democrat, will represent the district in the next congress.

Filling of the vacancies will make the house lineup at the start of the forthcoming special session on November 20, 302 Republicans, 132 Democrats and one Socialist.

The official tabulation, it appeared today, might give the senate 53 Republicans, Delaware, a seat in the senate until next March 4, regardless of the outcome of his contest with Thomas F. Bayard, Democrat for the term beginning in March. If Bayard is seated for the unexpired term the Republican majority would be cut to twenty-two.

HOFFMAN CHARGED WITH CONTEMPT, HEARING FRIDAY

Walter J. Hoffman, manager of the dancing pavillion at McCullough's Lake will face contempt proceedings before Judge Fred C. Becker, Friday afternoon.

Hoffman is accused of violating an injunction secured by Ruth C. Hoffman, enjoining him from interfering with her affairs or molesting her.

On November 8 Hoffman is alleged to have accosted his wife on the street and made threats.

Later on he is said to have gone to her home and created a disturbance. An officer was called to drive him away. Hoffman is seeking a divorce from his wife, and she has filed a cross petition.

WIDOW APPOINTED
Mrs. Rose P. Christen was appointed administratrix of the estate of Edward Christen, former vice-president of the Crystal Ice Co., who died October 22, at a hearing before Probate Judge H. Hamilton, Friday. An estate worth $8,820 was listed. Mrs. Christen was named by her husband as sole heir in the will.

PLATE HEADS COMMITTEE

City Officials Will Assist in Giving Welcome

A reception committee headed by R. J. Plate and composed of scores of Lima citizens including city officials, will greet Dr. W. E. Biederwolf, evangelist, and his party, when they arrive here Saturday at 9:21 a. m.

Included on the reception committee will be Mayor Harold Cunningham, City Manager Bingham, Manager J. Kennard Johnson of the chamber of commerce and Roy Gregg, president of the Better Business Bureau.

The greeting at the train will be of informal nature. Biederwolf's party will be accompanied to the Barr hotel by the committee.

Further plans for the day have not been completed. Conferences between the evangelist and local managers of the rally to begin Monday, will probably be held.

Practically everything is now in readiness for the huge religious meeting. The tabernacle stands complete and awaits only the arrival of the speaker and the thousands who will hear him.

First rehearsals of the mammoth choir that have been organized for the occasion will be held Friday night at the tabernacle. Invitations are extended to all who desire to sing to be present at the rehearsals. A place will be made for everyone.

Union meetings of pastors and representatives of churches in all neighboring towns and villages have been held and arrangements have been made for large delegations to attend the religious rally here.

STRIKING STUDENTS STRICKEN FROM PAYROLL

CHILLICOTHE—Strike of students at United States vocational training school Number 1, took a serious turn for the students here today, following the receipt of a telegram from Colonel C. R. Forbes, chief of the veterans' bureau, in reply to their protest against a raise in rents and alleged abuses on the part of the medical staff at the school.

Colonel Forbes ordered names of all striking students taken from the vocational payroll. This means a reduction of from $100 and $175 a month to $50 a month for each affected.

STEAMER BURNED

Crew Rescued From Fire in Gulf of Mexico

NEW ORLEANS — (Associated Press.)—The freight steamer Nola, which plies between New Orleans and Houston, Texas, was reported by wireless this morning to be burning in the Gulf of Mexico about 40 miles from the mouth of the Mississippi river.

Later reports said the ship was destroyed and the crew in lifeboats was picked up by a French steamer.

The messages sent by Captain Laurauri of the ship did not state how the fire started. The vessel, as far as known, had no highly inflammable materials in her cargo.

The Nola belonged to the Gulf Navigation Company. She was 300 tons burden, 150 feet long and motor driven. The number in the crew was not learned.

THREE ROBBERIES ARE REPORTED

Petty Crime Wave Hits City Thursday Night

In the face of a reduction of the police department, Lima was covered Thursday night with an epidemic of burglaries, which according to police officers, appeared to be the work of amateurs.

The Lexington Motor company reported that its salesroom had been entered thru a rear window, and that the safe, which was left open was robbed of about $2.

The Black garage, 512 W. High-st., reported that thieves had entered the building thru a rear window and approximately $7 had been taken. Finger prints were found in several places in the office, which may lead to the detection of the criminals, police say.

The Kicker Lumber company, Elm and Central-sts., reported that entrance into the office had been made by breaking the glass in the front door and that the office had been ransacked. Nothing was stolen, according to the complaint.

New Lamp Burns 94% Air

Beats Electric or Gas

A new oil lamp that gives an amazingly brilliant, soft, white light, even better than gas or electricity, has been tested by the U. S. Government and 35 leading universities and found to be superior to 10 ordinary oil lamps. It burns without odor, smoke or noise—no pumping up, is simple, clean, safe. Burns 94% air and 6% common kerosene (coal-oil).

The inventor, G. M. Johnson, 693 W. Lake St., Chicago, is offering to send a lamp on 10 days' FREE trial, or even to give one FREE to the first user in each locality who will help him introduce it. Write him today for full particulars. Also ask him to explain how you can get the agency, and without experience or money make $250 to $500 per month.

HEIRESS TO WED POOR ARTIST

Undertaker's Son Wins Girl With $38,000,000 Estate

ROYAL PROPOSALS SPURNED

"Nothing Strange About It," Says Chicago Young Woman

CHICAGO — (United Press) — Dolora Angell, 19, niece and heiress to the $38,000,000 estate of "But Em a Million" Gates, will marry Lester Norris, poor artist and son of the village undertaker of St. Charles, Ill., in the spring.

The agreement was formally announced at a gathering of Miss Angell's friends.

Norris, who is 21, is a cartoonist for the Hamiltonian, published by the Hamilton Club, of Chicago. He is a graduate of the Chicago Academy of Fine Arts.

Miss Angell is the daughter of a deceased sister of Mrs. John W. Gates, from whom she received the $38,000,000 fortune. By Mrs. Gates' will the fortune was divided between Miss Angell and E. J. Baker, a brother of Mrs. Gates, who lives in St. Charles. When Baker dies, his share of the estate will go to Miss Angell.

Miss Angell receives the income of the inheritance until she is 21 years old. Until that time the estate is managed by her father, R. F. Angell. He reported that between 1919 and 1921 more than $170,000 was paid out for the education and care of Miss Angell.

"There's nothing strange about it," Miss Angell said today. "We love each other."

THE romance started years ago, when Lester was in the sixth grade and I was in the fourth grade."

Miss Angell recently returned from Europe, where it was reported she received scores of proposals of marriage from royalty.

The wealthy American girl, however, has simple tastes.

"I don't want a fancy wedding," she said. "Lester and I will just slip off and be married with the members of my family and his and a few of our best friends present. Wilma Blanchard will play the wedding march. She is my best friend."

"No church wedding for me."

"After we are married, we will live at our place on the St. Charles river, until we can build a bungalow."

"I don't want any corps of stiff servants around to boss me, either."

CAN WASH DISHES

"I can go into the kitchen, cook a dinner, serve it and wash the dishes just as well as any other housewife."

"I'll take 'Old Chesty'—she's been with the family for years and I couldn't do without her. But she's the only servant I want."

"Even a chauffeur will be barred because I want to drive my own car."

"It may be we will have to have a man to tend the furnace and mind the garden. Les can't keep about those things and besides, he will be busy drinking."

"I know we will be happy. He's so clever. Why, I've got a room full of letters from him. They are all illustrated. He always loved to draw."

Norris is quiet and says "to let Dolora do the talking."

The engagement ring belonged to his grandmother. It is modest.

"I had it reset just before Dolora left for Europe. One night I took it down and slipped it on her finger. She wore it all the time while she was abroad."

Miss Angell, with her parents, will leave for Pasadena, Calif., in a few days to spend the winter.

NEW FASHION IN WALL STREET

30 COMPANIES FALL IN LINE

Actions Taken Involve Sums of Many Millions

(BY B. C. FORBES)
NEW YORK — (Special) — "We wait women about being slaves to fashion?" But Wall Street is almost as bad; some one or more corporation starts a financial mission and others take it up frenziedly.

The very latest fashion in Wall Street takes the form of stock dividends.

Some thirty important companies have already announced such dividends. The amounts range from several millions to more than $500,000,000, the amount "distributed" by John D. Rockefeller's original company, Standard Oil of New Jersey.

Look at this impressive list of stock dividends declared within the last two or three months:

Vacuum Oil, 300 per cent.

Pan American Petroleum, 25 per cent.

Singer Manufacturing, 23 1-2 per cent.

Bank of Manhattan Company, 10 per cent.

May Department Stores, 300 per cent.

Yale and Towne Manufacturing, 100 per cent.

Solar Refining Company, 100 per cent.

Gulf Oil Corporation, 200 per cent.

Hercules Powder, 100 per cent.

Southern States Oil Corporation, 8 per cent.

City Ice and Fuel, Cleveland, 25 per cent.

American Light and Traction, 1 per cent.

Lewiston (Maine) Gas Light, 12 1-2 per cent.

S. O. of New York, 200 per cent.

S. O. of California, 100 per cent.

American Radiator, 50 per cent.

S. O. of New Jersey, 400 per cent.

American Machine and Foundry, 200 per cent.

Crown Publishing, 200 per cent.

Ohio Oil, 300 per cent.

Borneo Strymer, 400 per cent.

Great American Insurance, 25 per cent.

Victor Talking Machine, 600 per cent.

Great Northern Paper, 200 per cent.

Lawyers Mortgage, 25 per cent.

National Sugar Refining, 50 per cent.

Standard Sanitary Manufacturing, 40 per cent.

Union Mills, Inc., Boston, 100 per cent.

S. O. of Kansas, 300 per cent.

Every morning brings intimations of other stock dividends either declared or under consideration.

What started this Wall Street fashion?

Apparently, it was at one time feared that Congress was getting ready to impose and extract a heavy tax on undistributed surpluses. So the shrewd gentlemen who watch over the finances of corporations conceived the idea of "distributing" surpluses by "paying" them out to stockholders in the form of additional amounts of stocks.

Secretary of the Treasury Mellon came out with a flatfooted denial that the government proposed to take action such as was rumored.

But that hasn't checked the stock dividend fashion. It is raging as merrily as ever.

Experts on taxation and on corporation finances, as a matter of fact, express doubts as to whether the mere issuance of additional stock certificates would enable corporations to escape from a tax on undistributed surpluses should such a tax be enforced. There is at present

WHEN WE WERE 21 "ALIS"

SHOULD THE WOMAN PROPOSE?

NEW YORK — (Special) — Should the woman propose? W. L. George, noted British writer, has said that with growth of feminism comes a growing tendency for women to propose marriage to men.

Their proposals, he points out, will "hold forth to men a far greater chance of happiness than they have had hitherto, for they will be sure that the women who select them do so because they love them and not because they need to be supported."

Meanwhile the attitude of men, George declares, is changing from "Will you be mine?" to "May I be yours?"

But do women really want to propose? In search of an answer NEA service went to five women in widely different walks of life. Here are the views of a woman lawyer, an actress, a waitress, a stenographer and an artist:

BY LUCILLE PUGH
Woman Attorney

Women are more intelligent than men, therefore they should do the proposing. But to propose to a man you do not have to lasso him, neither do you have to march up to him with a box of chocolate creams and a bunch of red roses.

If you like a man—let him know it. If you think he's clever and brainy and you love the way other men look up to him, let him know it.

And if you think you would make him a delightful pal, a charming mistress for his home, a good cook, an aid in all his undertakings, let him know that too.

It will probably be the best thing that ever happened to him.

on the statute books a law providing for a tax on any undistributed surplus held by a corporation beyond the "reasonable" needs of its business, although what constitutes the "reasonable" needs of any business has not yet been determined by either the taxing authorities or the supreme court, so that the existing law has been a dead letter—thus far at least.

As a matter of fact, the Supreme Court has already ruled that stock dividends are non-taxable income because, ruled the Supreme Court, a stock dividend does not "distribute" any of a corporation's surplus. Under these circumstances it would seem as if corporations now in a stampede to declare stock dividends are simply whipping the devil around the post.

But the ways of politicians and the inside advance knowledge of

First choose your man, then run. But don't run too fast.

A man is a pretty old legend—that man must be the pursuer, woman the pursued, and I doubt if anything is going to change it for a long time.

Women are voting, they have gone into the professions and some of them are making a great deal of money. But none of these changes the biological circumstance that women are women and men, men.

A man's mind is so constituted that he just loves to overcome obstacles. Consequently he prefers a woman who eludes him to one who comes forward and asks him in straightforward fashion to support her for the rest of her life.

I should let the man do the proposing for a long time to come.

Even if I had to die an old maid, I would never propose to a man. It would be a pretty state of affairs for a girl if some of the men she thinks she's in love with should accept her.

When you're 16 you fall in love with the boy that drives the grocery wagon.

When you're 18 it's the tenor in the church choir. Six months later it's a stock actor.

I once worked in an office where there was a girl who had gone with a young man for nine years. One day he went for a visit to his home town and came back—married to a schoolteacher he had met on a picnic eight days before.

The girl's heart was broken. "Why didn't you ever put it up to him?" I asked.

"I was afraid to," she said. "If in such cases, and nearly every one knows of such cases, 'putting it up to a man' amounts to a proposal, then I'm for it. It is better for a girl to know a man's real intentions toward her than to throw her youth away."

It is not woman's place to propose. Woman will lose her power over man if she takes the initiative in matters of love. To retain her away she must hold herself aloof, let herself be pursued and not submit to easy capture.

Half of woman's fascination lies in keeping man thinking she is unattainable.

If she does the pursuing, the mystery of her disappears, and she loses much of her value in man's sight.

DEISEL CO. UNVEILS NEW WINDOW DISPLAY

A surprise was given the public Thursday night when The Deisel Co. unveiled its newly remodeled corner display window. This window has been enlarged and a handsome background of beveled mirrors set in panels has been installed. At 7:30 Thursday evening the store unveiled the window and displayed on living models many new garments. A grand piano adorns the center of the display with apparel grouped about it. It is considered the most beautifully appointed window in this section.

UNFILLED ORDERS GROW
NEW YORK — Unfilled orders of the United States Steel Corporation on October 31, made public today, totaled 6,902,287 tons, an increase of 210,680 tons over September 30, which showed a total of 6,691,607.

ITCHING ECZEMA DRIED RIGHT UP WITH SULPHUR

Any breaking out of the skin, even fiery, itching eczema, can be quickly overcome by applying a little Mentho-Sulphur, says a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ destroying properties, this sulphur preparation instantly brings ease from skin irritation, soothes and heals the eczema right up and leaves the skin clear and smooth. It seldom fails to relieve the torment and disfigurement. Sufferers from skin trouble should get a little jar of Rowles Mentho-Sulphur from any good druggist and use it like a cold cream.—Adv.

HUBER IS NAMED LEGION HEAD

Delphos Organization Elects Officers Thursday Night

ARMISTICE PLANS COMPLETE

Observance of Day Will Take Place Sunday

Dr. Huber was elected Thursday night at a meeting of Commemorative Post, Delphos American Legion, to lead the organization during the ensuing year as post commander. He succeeds Dr. G. L. McKenzie.

William Eichenhorst was chosen first vice-commander; Otto Hemme, second vice-commander; Kenneth Hatch, adjutant and historian; Dr. G. L. McKenzie, secretary-treasurer; Del Swarth, chaplain; Walter Lammerman, sergeant-at-arms; Raymond Lang, Bartley Ford, Del Swarth, Aloysius Brendel and Thomas Finley, executive committee.

Plans for observance of Armistice Day on Sunday were discussed. There will be a parade led by a band, a flag squad and each service man will be in uniform. The legions will meet at headquarters at 2 p. m. and march to the local cemeteries.

Women of Delphos will conduct a tag sale for the benefit of the legion on Saturday. William Eichenhorst was appointed to assume charge.

BOATING
A boating exhibition by the legion had been talked of for a week, but due to inability to secure St. John's auditorium, the proposition was dropped.

Formation of a woman's auxiliary and a benefit motion picture show were tabled until further information is available.

A bake sale was postponed until November 18, when the Lady Macabees will have charge.

The Venedocia Glee club will make its appearance at Jefferson high school auditorium November 3 under auspices of the American Legion. Manager J. Roberts of the club offered its services to the service men at the meeting. The date of November 23 was selected in order not to conflict with a basketball game between St. John's high school of Delphos and St. Rose of Lima, on November 24.

Two years ago the Venedocia glee club gave a musicale in Delphos and attracted a $250 house. A report on conditions of the American Legion baseball committee was postponed until later.

TYPEWRITER LOST

Delphos Police Hold One For Theft of Machine

Disappearance of a typewriter belonging to William Baxter from the repair shop, W. Second-st., Delphos led to the arrest Thursday night of Arthur Hadding, second hand and junk dealer.

Hadding is held at city jail under suspicion of having taken the typewriter while on a visit to the shop for the purpose of buying junk. He was arrested on a warrant alleging his complicity in the theft. According to Chief of Police Henry Haddings, however, no trace of the typewriter has been found.

Hill left Delphos October 20 and wife was in charge of the shop when Hadding visited there more than a week ago, police say. She was the complainant Tuesday night.

Trail of the typewriter led to the Haddings second hand store. Police learned someone had offered a typewriter there, but found it was not Hadding.

His innocence is stoutly maintained by Hadding, who alleges that he is the victim of a "frame up".

Judging from today's enthusiastic response--

Tomorrow will see the Climax of the Sale of our Entire Stock of Fur Trimmed Suits 33 1/3% Off

The alert woman can readily see the unusual advantages of choosing from this selection now.

Nowhere can choicer garments be found---these were chosen by a Staff buyer deliberately and carefully, in New York, lately. Not one "Sale Suit" is included---only our regular stock which was clean and without a single questionable style in it.

The suits were very moderately priced in the beginning—as the price range and an inspection of the exquisite qualities will prove. To cut them one-third of the price so early in the season leaves one wondering—but it is the decision of Bluem's to give the patron these suits early—while they are at the height of their season, rather than wait until even half price cannot prove much of an inducement.

Alteration and credit privileges will be the same throughout the duration of the clearance.

More than ample floor space, and the best of service enables you to make your decision as deliberate as you wish. However MAKE YOUR VISIT AS SOON AS POSSIBLE FOR THE CHOICEST SELECTIONS The suit section will open at 8:30 in the morning.

One Group of Suits, special at $29.75

Fifteen late styles, sizes 16 to 42. Fine fabrics such as duvetyn, duvet-delaine, English chevies, moussine, etc., cleverly trimmed and exquisitely tailored afford an admirable selection for fastidious tastes. Navy, sorrento, brown, black, taupe, etc.,—formerly sold from $37.50 to $65.

Another Blanket Offer---

This is our fifth sale of Lima Woolen Mills Blankets—and the largest. That they are unusually successful is proved by the fact that twenty four hours after announcing their arrival the sale stocks have been depleted. Tomorrow instead of the one quality at $6.95 we offer FOUR MORE STILL BETTER. You can't afford to miss the opportunity of buying blankets like these at these prices!

Prices are naturally lower than on foreign makes of Blankets, as there are no transportation charges.

- Lima Woolen Mills Blankets of good quality—$9 values, slightly imperfect—$6.95
- Lima Woolen Mills Blankets, heavy quality, would sell at $10, almost perfect—$7.95
- Lima Woolen Mills Blankets—perfect except for double borders, etc.—heavy quality, worth $10 and $11—$9.00
- Lima Woolen Mills Blankets, the highest grade. Fine heavy weave—strictly all wool—$10 & $11

Luxurious Coatings --- Specially Priced

If your taste is just a little above your means this winter, why not make your own winter coat? If there was anything really difficult in the fashioning, or finishing or trimming one might hesitate to undertake it—but every obstacle is swept away with the coming of these luxurious materials—special patterns with careful guides—and the correct and most suitable fur handings, and silk trimmings. Have it just as you want it, and as beautiful as you can imagine, at an unbelievable low price. Come in and see these to prove that it is possible—

- Gerona a deep silk pile fabric, in rich coating shades—54 inches wide—$10.00 yd.
- Marvella perhaps the most beautiful coating on the market in this form—$12.00 yd.
- Veldyne a coating of remarkable wearing qualities, in the best shades—$7.50 yd.
- Novelty Weaves for children's coats, and grown ups' coats—all wool—specially priced at $3.95 and higher

WOMEN FIGHT TO LIMIT DIVORCE

Club Federation Will Put Matter
ter up to Congress

UNIFORM LAWS TO BE SOUGHT

Constitutional Amendment May be Necessary

(By Leticia Stringfellow Read)
WASHINGTON.—(United Press)—The General Federation of Women's Clubs, after long denouncing lax marriage and divorce laws, are prepared for a final fight for better and uniform laws at the hands of Congress.

The legislative chairman of the federation, Mrs. Edward Franklin White, of Indiana is now preparing a bill which will be pushed with all the vast power held by the federation.

Under the proposed law, in case will be made more difficult and divorce may be granted only in one of five grounds—unfaithfulness, cruel and inhuman treatment, abandonment for one year or more, incurable insanity and conviction for an infamous crime. But once granted in one state under Mrs. White's bill, the divorce would be good in every state in the Union.

Mrs. White, who is deputy attorney general of the State of Indiana and an able lawyer, was authorized by the General Federation of Women's Clubs to draft the bill following the Federation's endorsement of the principle of a national uniform marriage and divorce at its last annual convention.

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT
It is possible, that, to secure a national law on the subject, it will be necessary to secure, first an amendment to the Constitution. Mrs. White is also looking after this, and upon recommendation of fifteen senators who have promised to push the bill, is preparing also an amendment to be introduced simultaneously with it.

Some of the salient points in the proposed bill, are, according to Mrs. White:

License to marry must in all cases be secured and must be applied for in the county of the woman's residence, and must be issued two weeks before issue.

Affidavit must be made that no legal impediment exists, which includes: existing marriage contract, under age of 18 for the woman and 21 for the man, except upon parent's or guardian's consent; insanity, imbecility, pauperism; epilepsy; tuberculosis or venereal disease, members of different races, relation within certain degrees of consanguinity.

A heavy penalty is provided for a marriage license clerk who issues a license to marry in violation of this provision, and also for applicants who make false statements to secure the license, and for an officiating person who marries two people without a proper license, or without the presence of two witnesses.

Sixty days must elapse after filing suit for divorce before trial of the case and after granting of divorce an interlocutory decree shall be issued which cannot be made permanent until one year has elapsed during which time neither party may marry.

The court is authorized to make provision for custody and education of children as appears for their best interests.

State federation in each state will be urged to introduce the identical bill in their own state legislature and to try to secure its passage there.

The General Federation of Women's Clubs speaks for 2,000,000 women in the United States and thru them for countless millions of others.

RED CROSS RALLY

Annual Membership Roll Call

PRESIDENT BOOSTS MOVE

Harding Issues Proclamation
Appealing for Support

WASHINGTON — (Associated Press) — President Harding in a proclamation issued today calling attention to the annual membership roll call of the American Red Cross, which begins tomorrow, declared "there are peculiarly urgent reasons to appeal this year in behalf of an even greater generosity that has been necessary in some other times."

Notable among those reasons the President mentions the situation in the Near East where he asserts millions of people must look to more favored national communities such as the United States for the means of life. He bespeaks the aid of the American people for the Red Cross as one of the chief relief agencies and the cooperation of Americans in the support of all the organizations at work in that portion of the world.

PRESIDENT'S PROCLAMATION

The proclamation follows:

"To The American People:

"The assurance, based on many years' experience, that there will be prompt and generous response, makes it always a satisfaction to direct public attention to the annual Membership Roll Call of the American Red Cross. This year it will open on Armistice Day, November 11, and close on Thanksgiving Day, November 26. As President of the United States and also President of the American Red Cross, I hereby proclaim November 12 as Red Cross Sunday, and invite all the people to unite with their spiritual leaders in such observance of it as may promote a renewed consecration to the gospel of service based upon divine injunction and sanctioned by all good conscience."

"By the terms of the Congressional Charter which called it into being, the American Red Cross is charged with certain clearly defined duties and obligations. These it has continued, during the past year, to discharge faithfully and efficiently. There are peculiarly urgent reasons to appeal, this year, in behalf of an even greater generosity than has been necessary in some other times, because of the extraordinary demands upon such services of mercy and humanity. One of the most fearful disasters of all history has befallen the ill-fated Near Eastern area, where the lives of millions of unfortunate people even now depend, and must continue for a long time to depend, on the unflinching liberality of more favored communities. A very great sum is required to be raised if the emergency shall be met; and while the task is one to which all well-disposed peoples must contribute, our own country in virtue alike of its possessions, must be conspicuous for both the great share it shall give, and the high spirit animating the gift. It is therefore asked that cooperation be established between the Red Cross, the Near East Relief, and all other agencies which are concerned to assist in dealing with this crisis."

"In the domestic field, demands continue to press heavily upon the Red Cross. The government is earnestly seeking to insure to every diseased or disabled ex-service man the full measure of care and help which, national gratitude and simple justice demand. The aim must be to restore every service man to the best possible health and the largest opportunity for a normal and self-supporting life. In this effort the government, the army and navy, have gladly availed themselves of the assistance of the Red Cross which, due to its nation-wide volunteer organization, has been a constant and valued aid."

"In the broad field concerned with the physical welfare of the people, the Red Cross, in sympathetic contact with other organizations, and the Federal and State Bureaus, has been particularly active in the establishment and support of Public Health activities for the prevention of disease and the encouragement of sound sanitation. In its peculiar and historic field of Disaster Relief, the Red Cross has met the emergencies brought about by the large number of floods and other calamities during the past year, and is still called upon to aid the suffering in foreign lands due to war and pestilence. For these reasons, regardless of the multitude of local problems in every community, the American Red Cross deserves well at the hands of the American people."

"In the interests of our common humanity and of the service which we owe to our fellow men, I invite my fellow citizens to renew their allegiance to the American Red Cross during the period of the Membership Roll Call."

(Signed) WARREN G. HARDING."

MYSTERY DRAWS PUBLIC NOTICE

Shown in Hall Case, Scotland Yard Expert Says

ELEMENTS STIR CURIOSITY

Interest Created by Love Drama and Jealousy

(BY SIR BASIL THOMPSON)
Former Head of Criminal Investigation Department of Scotland Yard.
NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J.—It is impossible to generalize about the detection of the crime as it is about a criminal.

We are all potential criminals in that, given the temptation and the lack of self-control, we might at any time gratify our wishes at the expense of others. We are not all around to one pattern, and if the whole world, under some malign, planetary influence, were to break the law simultaneously, every crime on the calendar would figure in the list.

Speaking broadly, a successful detective must have an organization, a knowledge of human nature, and luck, in about equal proportions. When the luck predominates, he is very successful indeed.

His first object must be to insure that no circumstantial facts escape him. He must make a thorough search of the scene of the crime. If it is a murder, there must be a minute medical examination of the body and every fact must be recorded in writing.

DETECTIVE MUST BE PSYCHOLOGIST

A photograph on a graduated scale, giving the distance in feet of every object that appears in the field, should be taken, preferably on a camera invented by a police officer in Vienna. Experience has shown that a photograph is less puzzling to a jury than a plan drawn to scale.

The knowledge of human nature comes in when the neighbors and other possible witnesses are being questioned. The police officer must then be persuasive and discriminating; he must be able, at a glance, to see when a witness is keeping something back, or when he is telling more than he knows.

It is not until all the evidence has been got together that the deductive progress can be indulged in, and then deduction should be confined at first to ascertaining who had a motive for committing the crime.

INTEREST IN HALL CASE

I am told that much of the mystery has created such public interest as the Hall murder in New Jersey. This is not surprising, for it has all the elements that stir curiosity: it was a love drama; some of the actors are people of wealth and position; there were elements of savagery about the crime; the suggested motive is not clear, and such clues as there may have been immediately after the commission of the crime were allowed to disappear. It is the element of mystery that counts.

How little public interest is taken in a murder when the assassin walks into a police station and throws himself upon the mercy of the police. It is the same man who made a sensational escape or had done something to suggest that he was the agent of a widespread conspiracy, he would have been the talk of the continent.

If Stille Morrison, in London, had not scratched the letter "S" upon the cheek of his victim with the point of a knife, little interest would have been aroused. It was a case of murder for robbery, and the murderer tried to invest it with public significance.

FINED $25

Charles "Rusty" Elder, 40, arrested Wednesday night by Delphos police on a charge of drunkenness, pleaded guilty Thursday afternoon before Mayor J. K. Williams and was fined $25 and costs.

SALTS FINE FOR ACHING KIDNEYS

Eating too much meat may clog Kidneys, then the Back hurts.

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally, else we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sort of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity. It also helps neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus helping to relieve bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is harmless, inexpensive, makes a delightful effervescent lithia water drink which everybody should take now and then to help keep their kidneys clean.

A well-known local druggist says he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in trying to correct kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

Does Your Back Ache? Do You Find It Hard to Get Up in the Morning?

Here's a Way to Gain New Life

Cincinnati, Ohio—"I had been a great sufferer from backache and kidney trouble. My work is pretty hard on the back and I got so bad that I could hardly bend over or straighten myself to do my work and it was an effort to get up in the morning. I was in such a state that I was willing to try anything and did try many things. I heard of Dr. Pierce's Anuric (kidney and backache) Tablets at last and tried them. The reason I say last is 'Anuric' was the last I needed, for two bottles have taken all the pain and kink out of me. I want to say, 'Anuric' has beat them all."—Albert Johns, 1739 Eastern Avenue.

Help your weakened kidneys by obtaining this "Anuric" of Dr. Pierce's at your nearest drug store or send 10c for trial pkg. of tablets to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel in Buffalo, N. Y., or write for free medical advice.—Adv.

SCIENTISTS SOLVE MYSTERY DEATHS

Unknown Bodies Identified by

TURN KNOWLEDGE TO USE

New York Police Have Bureau for This Purpose

(BY NORRIS QUINN)
NEW YORK, (Special)—The dry-dust anthropologist, delving into forgotten strata and piecing together fragmentary bones of prehistoric monsters, today has turned teacher to the New York police.
His knowledge has been turned to practical account in the newest and most spectacular branch of police research—identifying unknown dead.

Six hundred unknown bodies are found yearly in the streets, alleys and waters of Greater New York. But thru less than a dozen years the anthropologist 8 per cent were identified beyond dispute in 1931, more than 86 per cent in 1932 and a larger proportion of successes is looked for this year.

HOW IT'S DONE
Captain John H. Ayres, chief of the missing persons bureau of the New York Police Department, today told how he has accomplished his successes.

"If the corpse is complete and clothed, identification is comparatively simple," he says. "We examine the pockets for letters, documents, jewelry or keys."

"If these are lacking we turn to the clothes themselves. Usually there are tailor marks. In the better grade of clothing the name of the owner often is sewn in."

"Many bodies are identified by shoes. But the most valuable clothing clue is the laundry mark."

"When there is no clothing, we have to turn to the body itself. Are there distinguishing marks—scars or deformities? If not, the teeth are the most accurate—and usually in unerring—means of identification."

"But when a body, besides being unclothed, also is headless, the problem becomes intricate."

ANTHROPOLOGIST STEPS IN
"It is there that the anthropologist steps in with the knowledge he has gained in reconstructing dinosaurs and petrodactyls from the most meagre fossil remains."

"Just as he would work with a fossil, he examines the pigment of the hair on the victim's body and tells us the color of the hair on the missing head—and sometimes he can tell us the color of the eyes, too."

"Taking a legless, armless and headless corpse, the anthropologist tells us the victim's height and weight. He examines the blood corpuscles and tells us the approximate age."

"Or, given only a thigh bone, he tells us the owner's sex, age weight and height—if the owner was not of abnormal or grotesque proportions."

"Still more—from a fleshless skull, the anthropologist can deduce the owner's age, sex and race, and even make a good guess as to his nationality."

"All these things are being done daily and it's yielding identification that can't be disputed. It gets results when members of the dead person's family cannot identify the corpse."

Universal finger-printing would do away with most of the expense and difficulty now involved in identifying unknown dead, Captain Ayres believes.

ADOPTED PARENTS ARE KILLED

Six Year Old Girl Becomes Orphan Second Time

A little six year old girl, an orphan for a second time, lies hovering between life and death in a bed at Otis hospital in Celina.
Her adopted father and mother were killed late Friday afternoon when an L. E. & W. passenger train crashed into an automobile in which the three were riding thru St. Marys.
Leroy Silvers, 35, tower man for the railroad whose train hit his machine, and his wife, were the victims. Reva, the little girl, was seriously injured.
The accident lacks plausible explanation. Eye witnesses who knew the victims declare Silvers, knowing well the time train was due, drove his machine into its path.
The bodies were found 50 feet from the crossing. The child, alive then, was rushed to the hospital where physicians report she has a chance for recovery. Friends of the family are at a loss to explain what will happen to her should she recover.

CHRISTMAS IS 38 DAYS AWAY

Shop Early Campaign Begun by Better Business Bureau

"Only 38 shopping days until Christmas" Lima merchants were told at the regular meeting of the Better Business Bureau at the Barr Hotel Thursday night.

With Thanksgiving coming on the last day of November this year the Christmas shopping period will be the very shortest possible, only 29 days being available in which to make holiday purchases.

Window cards will be provided all merchants to be used reminding the public that shopping should be done as early as possible and that it will be to their disadvantage if it is delayed until the last minute.

Lima stores will be open evenings only for the last few nights before Christmas, probably during the week of December 16.

DRUG STORE MADE LUNCH ROOM

She Woman Gets Happy Inspiration In Nation's Metropolis

ELI SANDWICHES, HER BUSINESS

Inte Distributes Them to Hurred Workers via Soda Fountains

(By Josephine Van de Graft)

NEW YORK, (Special) — Two women fill New York's daily lunch basket.

Each night they turn out 1,000 sandwiches which are gobbled up by the rushing thousands who grab a snack to eat at the soda fountain or drug store just to save time. And then spend the rest of their lunch hour window shopping or sitting time.

All because Mrs. Nettie Schwarzwald went in to the sandwich business four years ago. As she saw the noon-hour hordes gulp down their coffee in a hurry to finish their luncheon in the restaurants, she began figuring how large a piece of ham she could insert between two slices of bread and still make a margin of profit.

TAKES ORDERS

She went to several other drug stores with her idea. They liked it so she started taking orders and her husband, Julius Schwarzwald, a restaurant keeper, started filling them. Business boomed and now Mr. Schwarzwald's sister, Mrs. Hannah Smith, helps her.

"To make our 45,000 sandwiches," say the women, "we use, among other things 4500 pounds of bread, 600 pounds of ham, 100 pounds of beef tongue, 400 pounds of Swiss cheese, 300 dozen eggs, 100 chickens, 110 pounds of cream cheese and 25 gallons of mayonnaise."

"Four years ago our weekly payroll totalled $66. Now it amounts to $1900. We have seven auto trucks and 75 persons working for us."

It is the boast of the two women that their kitchen is as "clean as a new bride's." But there are no women in it making sandwiches. That part is left entirely to men.

"Women's place," says Mrs. Schwarzwald, "is going after business."

"And getting it."

I TRIED many baking powders and finally found Calumet gave me the results I wanted in every way.

Now my parties have the reputation for delightful baked things.

It is a fact that Calumet determines success in baking, and that millions of housewives rely upon it always for light, tender, tasteful things.

If your bakings are not uniformly successful, change to Calumet for just a single trial.

CALUMET
The Economy BAKING POWDER

prevents failure and spoiling of ingredients; moderate in cost, and because it has more than the ordinary leavening strength, less is used. The sale of Calumet is over 2½ times as much as that of any other brand.

A great institution makes and keeps it pure. It contains only such ingredients as have been officially approved by the United States Pure Food Authorities.

A pound can of Calumet contains full 16 ounces. Some baking powders come in 12 ounce instead of 16 ounce cans. Be sure you get a pound when you want it.

TIGER SAILS FOR U.S. TOMORROW

Clemenceau Forgets Ago in Eagerness Over His Trip

THIRD VISIT TO AMERICA

Will Talk About the League of Nations

PARIS, (Associated Press) — George Clemenceau sails for America tomorrow, happy in the spirit of adventure. Considering his great age, he was eighty-one last September, the eagerness with which the Tiger of France anticipates the experiences that are soon to come to him in the United States is quite touching to those who see him and talk with him.

He talks of the present and the future in the manner of a man in middle life: he refuses to be reminiscent.

"I never was much of a chap for the past," Clemenceau remarked to the correspondent, who inquired about the former premier's earlier visits to the United States. This is not his second trip to America, as is commonly supposed, but his third.

EARLIER VISITS
In conversation Clemenceau seldom alludes to his experiences in America, first as a young gentleman of leisure reading extensively for two years in the libraries of New York and then as a teacher in a girl's school in Connecticut. It was during his days as an instructor at the girl's school that Clemenceau met the young woman who became his wife.

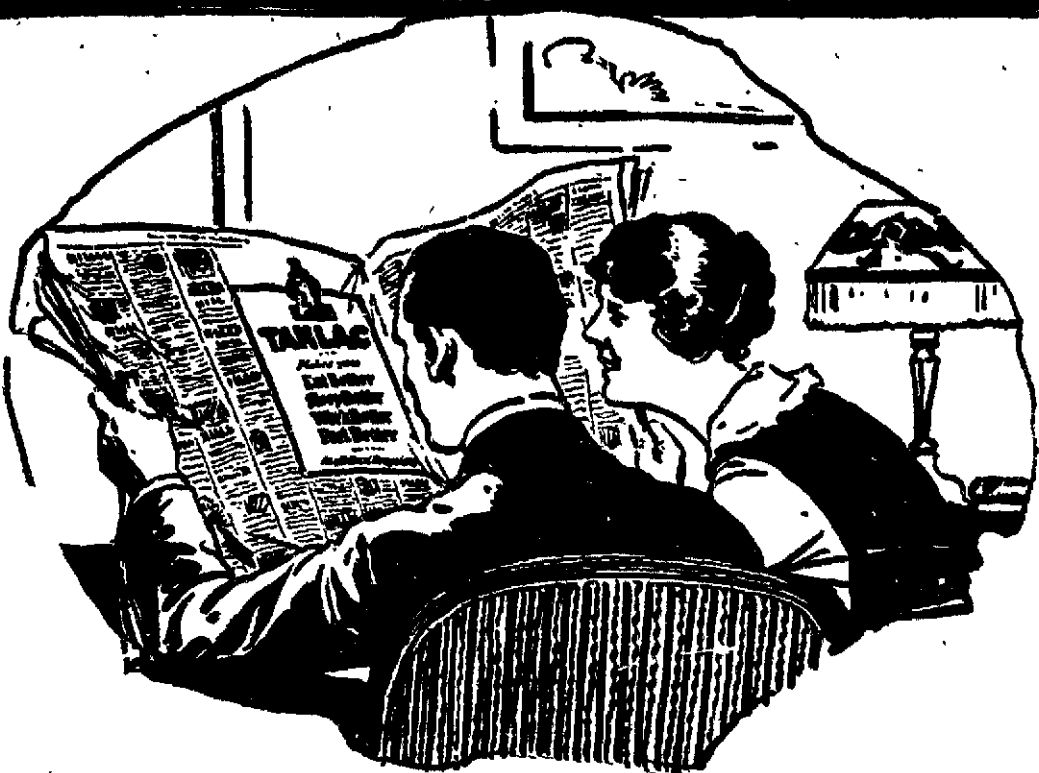

His stay in America gave to the Tiger that knowledge of English which has been one of his most useful accomplishments in his long public career. Always he has taken pleasure in the language and in its literature.

"My intentions in going to America are good; I feel sure of that," the aged politician said. "I see with considerable clearness how it will be to the material and moral interests of the United States to examine European difficulties with other conceptions than those they have at present."

MIND NOT MADE UP
Clemenceau expects to enlarge his own judgments of European situations by putting his ideas into contact with American views. He does not go to New York with his mind made up and closed as to what would be to the mutual and collective advantage of the United States, France and Europe generally.

"I shall talk about the league of nations, but I have no specific advice to offer," he remarked. "I believe in the idea of the league. The world must have something of the sort. I do not say that the league as it now exists is what Americans should adopt. It does not satisfy me but I am for the reparations."

"I shall of course have nothing to say about America's interior politics. I think of the American people; I never separate Americans into categories or undertake to classify them," Clemenceau added.

"If only everybody would read that—"

"What a wonderful thing it would be, if all the worn-out, miserable, suffering people would heed this great truth—why it would mean everything to them—just as it did to us."

Roquefort Surprise

MIX two parts ripe Roquefort cheese with one part Kingnut. Work into a paste with knife. Spread evenly on crisp saltine crackers and sprinkle with paprika. A very delicious after-dinner treat. The addition of Kingnut adds nutrition and makes the cheese easier to spread.

You will not wonder at the delicate taste of Kingnut when you know that it is made from coconuts, peanuts, and pure milk. People are fond of it spread on bread—and Kingnut is used this way in thousands of homes.

Getting Rid of a Stubborn Cough Is Child's Play Now

Make the Medicine Yourself at Home—It's Cheap—but You Can't Beat It

If you want to take care of that bad, hacking cough and do it in a few hours, better get one ounce of Parmit (double strength) and mix a half pint at home.

You can do this in two minutes by adding a little sugar and enough water to fill a half pint bottle. You'll have the world over before you get a medicine that will act so surely and quickly on the mucous membrane of the nose and throat. It halts the inflammation, the tickling sensation stops with the first spoonful, the heavy breathing goes and clear membranes, free from irritation and mucus follow.

For catarrhal conditions such as mucous droppings, clogged nostrils and watery eyes, it won't disappoint—ask for Parmit (double strength). Speak plainly so that the druggist will know what you want.—Adv.

WOMAN VOLUNTEERS HELP

Should be Made State Office Lawyer Believes

Andre Tridon, who analyzes human emotions and reactions and tells what dreams mean and what to do about an unsatisfactory love affair, recently underwent a serious operation. During his convalescence he applied the principles of psychoanalysis to the world around him, and he explained the result in an exclusive interview with the United Press.

(BY RICHARD CHAPLIN)

NEW YORK.—(United Press).—"The world is showing off."

So Andre Tridon, the famous psychoanalyst, explains the many political upheavals which have taken place within the last few months. "The public, the world over," Tridon said, "is tired of bosses and wants to show its power. It wants to do something itself; some great thing to which it can point proudly and say, 'I did that.' This accounts for the lack of direct action. In each country where there has been a turnover, it has followed in a different way."

WORLD CHANGES
Tridon referred to Italy, where there has been an extreme nationalist movement.

To the sudden and complete conservative reaction in England.

To the recent successes of the Democrat party here in America.

To the many shifts backward and forward and roundabout in Russia.

To the establishment of a republic in Germany and the apparent dissatisfaction with it.

To the overthrow of monarchy in Turkey.

And to the many turnovers, reversals and upheavals all over the world, in Poland, Albania, Rumania, Greece and China.

All this, according to the psychoanalyst, is in large part attributed to the war.

"During the war," he says, "governments lied and murdered, and taught the people not to love their brothers but to kill them. And the people were made to do what the governments ordered. So now in reaction they want to show that they can do something themselves. And they want particularly to show the government and they're doing it."

"It is a sort of egotism, this wish to show power. Does the public know what it wants? No. But it knows what it does not want. It does not want a monarchy and no more does it want a democracy; neither kings nor presidents. But not having any idea as to what would be better than these, the public merely turns out whatever happens to be in power."

OHIO COAL PRICES TO BE REVISED

Action May Stop Injunction Against State Board

TOLEDO.—(Associated Press).—Because of the changed attitude of the state fuel commission, it is thought unlikely that injunction proceedings pending against it in the local federal court will be heard, according to those in close touch with the coal situation.

Motion for an injunction restraining the state fuel commission from enforcing provisions of the recently enacted emergency fuel measure was filed in Federal Judge Killip's court Wednesday by the Ohio Coal Producers Company and the George M. Jones Company who control and operate a large number of mines in southern Ohio.

The bill of complaint questions the constitutionality of the emergency fuel act and alleges the price of $3.75 a ton, fixed by the fuel commission, is too low to warrant operation of mines and handling of coal of jobbers.

In view of the statement issued by State Fuel Administrator Neal who pointed out that an audit recently completed indicated that the price of $3.75 a ton was a little low and that as soon as other audits of retail coal companies and dealers are completed a revised list of prices will be made, providing the audits warrant such procedure, it is said that action on the injunction proceedings probably will be postponed when it comes up for hearing November 15.

FORD PLANS EXTENSIVE OPERATIONS IN ORIENT

WASHINGTON.—Henry Ford is planning for extensive manufacturing operations in the Orient, according to reports received by the commerce department today.

Joseph Baile, personal representative of Ford in China, has reported that the manufacturer has offered to provide technical training for 100 Chinese boys, a dispatch from Shanghai to the commerce department stated. Ford has specified that all these boys who receive this training, must have been born upon American soil.

This decision to train the Chinese gave rise to reports in Shanghai that Ford is planning the establishment of a manufacturing plant in the Orient, the cable stated.

CHARGES WIFE WITH KEEPING HOME DIRTY

An untidy home. Children running at large dirty and unkempt. A wife who nagged and quarreled continually.

These are a few of the reasons set forth by Bert G. Ringlespaugh, Spencerville, who is seeking a divorce from Bonnie Ringlespaugh, of Sidney.

Ringlespaugh's petition filed before Judge Fred C. Becker Friday, alleges that his wife has left him, as a result of their domestic difficulties.

He asserts that she would not keep home in a proper manner, nor care for their four children.

Frequent quarrels between the husband and wife resulted in a series of separations and reconciliations. Some weeks ago they parted for good, the plaintiff declares.

FUNERAL SERVICES

Funeral services for Mrs. Sarah Runke will be held Saturday at 2 p. m. at Shawnee Methodist Church and burial in Shawnee Cemetery.

HOUSE COMMITTEE WILL PREPARE APPROPRIATION MEASURES FOR CONGRESS

WASHINGTON.—(Associated Press).—With congress called by President Harding to convene in extra session November 20, members of the house appropriations committee were scheduled to meet today with the aim of having several of the appropriation bills ready for the house by the beginning of the regular session immediately following on December 4. During the two weeks of the extra session the house is expected to devote its attention to the ship subsidy bill while subcommittees of its appropriations committee work on the supply bills which form the most important task of the regular session.

It was with a view to getting an earlier start in an effort to clean up important legislation, including the appropriation bills by next March 4 when the sixty-seventh congress must adjourn sine die, that the call for an extra session which the president's proclamation said was made necessary by public interests, has been generally approved of by Republican leaders in congress. The senate has several important bills pending for action, including the Dyer anti-lynching bill, already passed by the house, and it is considered probable that the executive will make some definite recommendation as to changes in the transportation act at the outset of the session.

POMERENE CONGRATULATES FESS UPON HIS VICTORY IN RACE FOR U. S. SENATE

SPRINGFIELD, (Associated Press).—Atlee Pomerene, defeated Democratic candidate for United States senator, has wired his successful Republican opponent, Simon D. Fess, a congratulatory message. The telegram follows: "I congratulate you upon your victory at the polls. With best wishes."

(Signed) "ATLEE POMERENE."

Yellow Springs, the home town of Dr. Fess, near here, last night surprised the senator-elect with a parade and reception in his honor.

Dr. Fess expressed gratitude for what he said was an expression endorsing the Harding administration. "It is no small tribute to defeat the confessedly ablest Democrat in the nation," he said.

Residents of Yellow Springs claim the honor of being the smallest village in the country to boast a U. S. Senator. The population of the place is 1,500.

CANTON.—Senator Atlee Pomerene who was defeated for re-election to the United States senate by Congressman Simon D. Fess, at his home here today said:

"I desire to express my warmest appreciation for the support accorded me throughout the state. I do not desire to make any further statement at this time."

VAST SUMS SPENT FOR ROADS

Three Quarters of Billion Put in Work This Year

SPREAD OVER THREE TYPES

Includes Federal Aid, State and Municipal Building

WASHINGTON.—(United Press).—Nearly three quarters of a billion dollars are being expended on "good roads" throughout the country during the present year, according to the Bureau of Public Roads of the Department of Agriculture. Estimates made by the bureau, admittedly incomplete, place the probable total at $742,000,000.

This vast sum, amounting to well over three quarters of the pre-war national debt of the United States, is being spread over highway construction of three types; that built with federal aid, under legislation enacted a year ago by Congress; that financed and built by municipal units independent of federal or state aid.

FEDERAL AID Roads constructed with federal aid are becoming an increasingly large factor in the country's good roads development, the Bureau reports. During the past fiscal year over 10,000 miles of federally-aided road construction were completed, raising the total of federally-aided roads in the country from 7,500 miles to 17,500 miles. An additional 14,500 miles are under construction, estimated by the Bureau to average 58 per cent of completion. Texas led the states during the past year with a total of 933 miles of federally-aided highways completed. Five states, Arkansas, Georgia, Iowa, Minnesota, and North Carolina, each reported more than 500 miles of federally-aided highway projects since 1916. One of while Montana and Wisconsin completed more than 400 miles each.

More than thirty miles of bridges have been built on Federal-aid highway projects since 1916. One of the longest of these, the bridge from Yaman, to Bismark, N. D., is more than three and a half miles in length and cost $1,425,000, of which the federal government contributed fifty per cent.

BROKER SENTENCED NEW YORK.—Nathaniel Goldberg, stock broker, convicted of having embezzled Mrs. Antoinette Ardiou, Elizabeth, N. J., out of her life savings of $7,500, was sentenced to from 13 months to three years in state's prison.

SENTENCED TO JAIL CLEVELAND.—Anton Zitson was sentenced to 250 days in jail and fined $200 on a charge of careless driving growing out of the death of a seven-year-old boy who was run down by his automobile.

TWO KILLED IN WRECK CONNEMAR, Ohio.—Mr. and Mrs. F. Bergman, Jr., were instantly killed when their automobile was struck by a train.

DELPHOS KIWANIS CLUB LAUDED

Community Activities Bring Praise From National Body

D. J. Clark, secretary of the Delphos Kiwanis club, has received a letter from the Kiwanis International complimenting the local club on its achievement in the successful prosecution of a swimming pool for the Delphos city park. Mention of the pool will be made soon in the official Kiwanis magazine.

Completion of several expansion joints in the floor of the pool is all that remains of the work. Contractor John Bryan was busy Thursday tearing out the temporary wooden plugs preparatory to pouring in the asphalt, which will absorb the expansion and contraction of the concrete.

Nothing else will be done until spring, when the finishing touches, including erection of bath houses, a pavilion slides and other features will be added.

The park is the Mecca for scores of visitors each Sunday. Many from other parts come to view the concrete tank, which Delphos citizens pride themselves on as being one of the best that can be found anywhere.

DENTIST FINED CLEVELAND.—Dr. C. V. McKelvy, dentist, was fined $1,000 for illegal possession of liquor.

A WELL KNOWN LIMA MAN

In all parts of Lima one hears the words "Plant Juice." It is doubtful if any remedy ever gained the instantaneous success in this city that has come to this new herbal medicine. Although Plant Juice and Tho

MR. WILLIAM BINDER Plant Juice Man have been here only a short time, there is now scarcely a single portion of the city that is not represented by several men and women who have taken Plant Juice, have derived blessed relief through its use and who highly recommend it.

Only recently, The Plant Juice Man was visited at Hunter's drug store, 49 Public Square, by Mr. William Binder, of 718 South McDonel street, Lima, a well known tailor of this city, who called to tell of the surprising benefit he derived by taking Plant Juice.

"For 20 years I had suffered from an ulcerated stomach which got so bad at times that I had to walk the floor because of the pain of it," said Mr. Binder. "I also suffered from bad bowel trouble and had pains between my shoulders."

I spent a great deal of money trying to get something that would help me, but nothing seemed to do me any good and I began to think that I never would get better. Finally I read in the papers about your Plant Juice and got a bottle and I want to say that the results have been wonderful. The suffering with my stomach is gone and I do not have to walk the floor anymore. My bowels are getting in good shape again and the pains have left my back.

"The night after I started taking your Plant Juice was the first time in a long while that I had been able to get a full night's rest. The truth is that Plant Juice seemed to hit the spot at once in my case and I want to recommend it to everybody as a wonderful medicine."

The Plant Juice Man is at Hunter's drug store, 49 Public Square, Lima, where he is daily meeting the local public and introducing and explaining the merits of this remedy. Free samples given.

Plant Juice is sold also in Lima at Hunter's drug store, at Main and Wayne streets and at the Argonne drug store, opposite Post Office.

ODD FELLOWS LODGES HOLD COUNTY MEETING

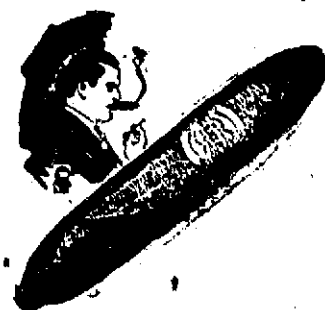

Representatives of 27 lodges of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows in Allen co attended the initial meeting of the county association at Memorial hall Thursday night.

Loren E. Sauer, of Canton, grand master, and H. D. Chaffin, of Columbus, were the speakers of the evening, addressing a large audience on the benefits of the order.

Prior to the meeting lodge members paraded thru the downtown streets, led by W. A. Ehrman, Canton Orton Patriarchs Militant, uniform rank, acting as marshal.

Nine of the lodges represented in the association are located in Lima. The remainder are out in the county.

Music and entertainment were features of the meeting.

USE THE LIMA NEWS AND BE PROSPEROUS

Capital, Character and Credit

--are the three recognized dimensions of business.

The fourth is Tradition. Any business which has endured for as many years as The Lima News has given proof of its service to the public.

The Lima News was the first Lima newspaper to install a great Goss Rotary Press; to use telegraphic service; to construct a building devoted exclusively to publication purposes.

It was the first to inaugurate a special Financial Service, spending at present more than $50,000 a year for reliable news alone. Through its leased wires and cable service, it distributes daily the news of the world to more than 50,000 individual readers in the city and over the Lima district.

The Lima News is the only Lima newspaper to maintain two leased wires for an exclusive World News Service. Its Far East news is the best in the world. Eminent journalists represent it in foreign lands. Its Washington correspondents and local writers are all stars.

The result is a superior newspaper with a superior circulation.

The Lima News in twelve years has increased the daily circulation of its editions from less than 5,000 to more than 16,000 and its Sunday circulation is more than its daily.

Each year an increasing number of merchants who seek the patronage of buyers in city and over the district are capitalizing on the confidence and good will which The Lima News has established in the minds of its readers. The largest space users in The Lima News are the most reliable merchants in Ohio. Lima News advertising, coupled with honest merchandise and courteous sales clerks will make any mercantile house prosperous. When a Lima merchant quits using The Lima News advertising columns, he is usually starting backward. In a short time there is nearly always a change in management at that store—and, more pitiful, often it is bankruptcy.

LOVE NOTES SHOW DEATH PLOT

London Police Believe Letters

HUSBAND. MURDER VICTIM

20-Year Old Sailor Boy Named
As "Other Man"

(BY MILTON BRONNER)

LONDON, (Special).—In a pile of "love letters" the police here believe they have revealed how two lovers plotted diabolically to get rid of a husband who stood in the way.

The actors in this tragic triangle are Edith Thompson, 27, a pretty milliner, her husband, Percy Thompson, a shipping clerk; and the other man, a blond, curly-headed, 20-year-old sailor boy, Frederick Bywaters. The Thompsons lived in a garden suburb of Ilford, not far out of the city. The neighbors thought them a happy and devoted couple, until they were shocked by the midnight murder not long ago.

A woman's voice cried out for help. It came from a curving, tree-shaded road leading into town. Those who rushed out found Mrs. Thompson hysterical. On the curb sat her husband bleeding, from many stab wounds. He was dead.

ATTACHED MISTAKENLY. She said that they had been to a theater. While walking home some mysterious person jumped out from the roadside and attacked her husband.

The police were not satisfied with her story. Several days later they arrested Mrs. Thompson and By-

LOVE LETTERS THAT LED TO TROUBLE

One of the letters which the London police say, Mrs. Edith Thompson, held for the murder of her husband, wrote to her 20-year-old sailor boy sweetheart:

"This thing that I am going to do for us both, will it ever make any difference between us?"

"Will you ever think the less of me?" I am not hesitating, darling, through fear of any consequence of action. Don't think that.

"But I would sooner go on in the old way for years and years and retain your respect."

waters. The boy admitted that he had fought with Thompson and had struck him with a knife. But he would not explain why.

Then the authorities found the letters, which they say, were written by the woman to the sailor. When confronted with these, Bywaters admitted that he was the woman's confidant.

In one of the letters the woman wrote that her husband had been ill from a medicine he took for insomnia. She told a neighbor about it as if frightened and alarmed "as I think it might be useful at some future time that I had told somebody."

In another massive she wrote that her husband complained about the taste of his food, as if something had been put into it. Then she went on:

"Now I think whatever else I try in again will still taste bitter. He will recognize it and be more suspicious still. And if the quantity is not successful, it will injure another chance I may have of trying when you come home."

Don't trust him. I do not mean don't tell him anything because I know you never would. What I mean is don't let him be suspicious of you regarding that, because if we are successful in the action, circumstances may afterward make us want many friends or helpers. We must have no enemies, or even people who know a little too much."

ENOUGH FOR ELEPHANT. In another letter the wife wrote:

"You said it was enough for an elephant. Perhaps it was, but you don't allow for the taste making only a small quantity to be taken. I was bought up with the hope of the light robe and I used a lot—big pieces, too not powdered and it had no effect."

I quite expected to be able to send that cable, but no, nothing has happened."

"All that lying scheming and subterfuge to obtain one little hour in each day—when by right of our love we would be together for 24 hours every day."

Thousands Have High Blood Pressure And Don't Know It

Symptoms are Dizzy Spells, Shortness of Breath and Sleeplessness

A successful remedy for high blood pressure is known to pharmacists at NORMA and during the past year the demand for it has increased tremendously.

A Buffalo physician devoted his talents to a close study of this altogether common condition and the result is a prescription now sold under the name of NORMA that is for high blood pressure only.

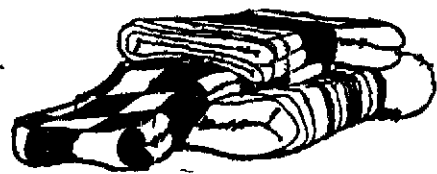

When high blood pressure is lowered, it is generally conceded by competent authorities that ailments caused by it, such as nervousness, pains in the head, "train" hot flashes and dizzy spells will cease to occur.

NORMA reduces high blood pressure and when that abnormal condition is mentioned above quickly follows.

Norma Public Drug Store dispenses NORMA—so do reliable pharmacists everywhere.

To My Commission

BOYS: I am glad that you have denied the rumor that you would resign and leave my city to shift for itself since the two mill levy was defeated by the voters Tuesday. I couldn't believe it when I first heard it.

My old town needs you now worse than it has since you took office under the new form of government. Stand by your guns, boys, and do the best you can. Fight it out to the last ditch and if you lose and things go to the dogs, you will at least have the satisfaction of knowing that you went down fighting and that you did not run away.

I fail to see why my people rejected the two mill levy. It is their city, not yours. If they want it run as you will be forced to run it on the money available, then there's no more argument, but Lord help us.

To Tabernacle Builders

DEAR FRIENDS: It pleases me much—after giving the big tabernacle the once over, to find that you have anticipated the needs and desires and conveniences of the hundreds and thousands of my folks who will take part in the services there.

One can only predict large attendance and I feel certain that the desired sort of results will be attained.

To J. E. Collins

DEAR JOHN: Now that my people have approved the proposition laid before them by yourself and the members of the school board to issue bonds of my city in the sum of $540,000 for needed school buildings, I trust that there will be as little delay as possible in getting the work started.

It is realized abundantly that there should be no backward step no matter what the cost may be. That is the big reason which impelled my citizens to give the proposition such emphatic approval.

LIMA BEANE.

To the Voters of Allen-co

MY FRIENDS: Most of you watched the straw votes in your favorite newspaper and other publications during the pre-election days. If you were the average, you drew conclusions therefrom. I'll admit I did. But what happened?

The results of the battle of ballots are known definitely now. The hope was all wrong. The straw votes failed to predict the outcome correctly. The totals in The Lima News, which conducted an unbiased, non-partisan canvass, were mostly wrong. In only one instance were they a correct barometer of what was to be expected. That was on the governorship race in the county.

There is no way to explain. Straw votes have been more or less correct in the past. One Ohio newspaper has always prided itself upon being able to foretell the election results by its survey. It fell down harder this time than any of the rest.

Independence of voters—failure to adhere to party lines—when they get in the voting booth may explain the upset of the straw votes this year. But one thing is certain. Such a canvass has been conclusively proved unreliable. It was misleading. So far

Near the club, greeted Ed G. Hood, the noble San Felice sponsor for Indiana. Coming here to make Alfred Wenner and Mark Kolter keep him stocked up faster than they smoke 'em. If they don't, afraid the Hoosiers will quit smoking tobacco and take to camels.

In the post, gay greetings from a Texas school friend aces ago. Telling me he had traded his half-breed wife for a Ford River. Wanted something he could run. Speaking of the 125,000 victory of St. Wheeler. Makes me think of John Roby's keen observation. On what prohibition has done for men. Which is. Has made them realize they can't sing, and never could sing. To the office and sat, whilst the Y. W. committee relieved me out of many shillings. Thence to the Lima Trust, stalling with Howard Dean. Until Mrs. Anna Vicary, the widely known philanthropist, spoke in fine friendliness. Yet gave me sorrow in saying Uncle George was not feeling so festive. To Congressman Cable

DEAR JOHN: Some run! The wise boys are still trying to figure it out. I'll admit it has me buffaloed along with the rest of 'em.

Your race should be a warning to those seeking to cut a man off with one term in the future. The people are partial to a man if he has given good service in his first term. And the dry support that flocked to you was no small factor in the outcome.

When you get down to Washington again, flash the official figures on your Republican national committee which admitted your defeat a few weeks ago, so it will know what the folks back home really think of their young congressman. And soon thereafter, hit the powers that be for a new federal building for your home town. If you can't get it now, there's no use ever talking about it again.

LIMA NEWS HEALTH SERVICE

Signed letters pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. Brady if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is enclosed. Letters should be brief, and written in ink. Address letters to Dr. William Brady, Editor of The News.

BY DR. WILLIAM BRADY

HOW TO RELAX AND LET GO

To vary the old saying slightly, a sound mind cannot work well in a sick body. For instance, a doctor who attempts to treat his own illness has a fool for a patient, for illness necessarily impairs one's reason and judgment. Decorum forbids qualification of the layman who undertakes to be his own physician.

As I have repeatedly pointed out, most people seem to be seeking good health. They are willing to try anything from hypophosphates to a sea voyage that purports to give one better health, which implies that they have indifferent health or do not enjoy good health. The average health standard is about 70 per centum. From the perfect state of health, or health plus, which one can and does enjoy on down to 70 per cent or less are all gradations, covering a multitude of popular symptoms and minor ailments.

Some people are content with a 70 per centum standard, cheerfully assuring inquiring friends that they are "not complaining." From the 70 per centum standard upward and downward for 10 to 20 points is the field of so called "functional" maladies. Of course, there is no real difference between a "functional" ailment and an "organic" one, but merely an arbitrary distinction sometimes made by the kind doctor to soothe a patient's mind. Disease is disturbance of function, and function is not disturbed unless something is wrong with the organ. So all disease is functional as well as organic, and if the arbitrary distinction is justified in some instances, it is nevertheless a bad policy for one to deceive himself that his ailment is not serious enough to require attention if it is "merely functional."

A great many individuals with health standards of from 50 to 70 per centum feel that their "nerves" are in some way to blame, and they wish they could "relax" as their well meaning friends advise, but try as they will they just can't let go. They generally assume that they live under such "high tension" what with domestic, business or professional responsibilities and all that sort of thing, that relaxation is impossible. Some of our old time "neurologists" always with a keen eye for business, helped along this joke at every opportunity, uttering a lot of ponderous nonsense about the "wear and tear of the strenuous life on the nervous system"—the strenuous life applying to business, social, domestic or any other life.

A well-known downtown druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too—so simply drench a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and beautiful.—Adv.

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use, at very little cost. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

HEAD STUFFED FROM CATARRH OR A COLD

Opens Air Passages Right Up

Instant relief—no waiting. You clogged nostrils—men, women, children—air passages of your head clear, you can breathe freely. No mawkish, snuffling, blowing, hee-ah-dryness. No struggling breath at night; your cold or catarrh disappears.

Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist now. Apply a little of this fragrant, soothing, healing cream in your nostrils. It penetrates through every air passage of the head, soothes the inflamed or swollen mucous membrane and relieves comes instantly.

It's just fine. Don't stay stuff up with a cold or nasty catarrh. Adv.

Thanksgiving is on the way! Dress up the family

Folks will be surprised at the wonderful values offered by this store

With November in our midst, Jack Frost around the corner, Thanksgiving but a short time away, the time is well nigh here for folks to buy their new winter clothes. All over town you see men making their appearance in new, smart suits and big, good-looking overcoats. You see women and misses sporting new coats and dresses. Even the youngsters romp about in new wearables.

If we were asked where a great many of these folks made their purchases, we would say without hesitation at the When Store. Here's a store where you can get whatever fashion demands and good taste dictates. A store that, because of its location, is able to offer remnantable values in apparel for every month of the family.

A man and his wife visited this store the other day and were over-delighted with the extraordinary variety of modish fabrics and colors that filled the When Store. And when they told us that they brought their new outfit and "changed it" arranging to pay in divided payments, we decided to pass the good word along everybody. The When Store certainly is the ONE place to dress up the family.

VICTORY ASSURED FOR BONUS

New Congress Will Override Veto of President

RESULT OF TUESDAY'S VOTE

Situation Revealed by Poll of Both Branches

(By LAURENCE M. BENEDICT) WASHINGTON—(United Press)—The new congress will override any presidential veto of the soldier bonus bill, thus assuring its enactment, it was revealed today by a comprehensive tabulation by the United Press of adjusted compensation strength in the senate elected Tuesday.

A careful poll of the senate as it will be constituted after next March 4, based on votes of the old senators in the present congress and on pledges made by the new members during the campaign, show that 67 senators are in favor of adjusted compensation, 27 are against, and the position of two is unknown.

A total of 67 votes for the bonus is three more than two thirds of the senate—the number required to override a veto.

HOUSE FOR BONUS
In the house, which overrode President Harding's veto of the measure last September, shortly before the senate blocked the measure by sustaining the veto, the objection, sentiment, is still overwhelmingly in favor of the bill.

The Democrats in the lower branch and the majority of these known to be for the bonus. The soldier bonus is certain to be introduced shortly after the convening of the new congress which probably will be called into special session shortly after March 4, 1923. The measure also will be introduced again in the present congress, but is extremely doubtful if it can be enacted during the few remaining months of the current session.

The American Legion, greatly encouraged by the increased majority for the measure in both houses and the favorable vote for the state bonus in Illinois, Iowa, Kansas, Montana and probably Oklahoma, is preparing to launch a new drive for the federal bill.

Success of the bill, when it comes up in the new congress, will depend upon the senate. The house has always voted overwhelmingly for the bonus and will continue to do so.

Of the 18 new members elected to the senate, 17 are for the bill, the attitude of two is unknown and only one is against it. American Legion headquarters here statement shortly, predicting that the passage of the bonus in the new congress is certain regardless of what position President Harding may take.

FULL TAKEN
The United Press poll taken from the congressional record and campaign pledges of the senators-elect is as follows:

Old senators for the bonus: Ashurst, Brandegee, Brunsard, Burton, Cameron, Caraway, Colt, Cummins, Curtis, Ewing, Fletcher, Gerry, Gooding, Hale, Harrell, Hays, Harvick, Heflin, Johnson, Jones, New Mexico; Jones, Washington, Kendrick, Ladd, LaFollette, Lusk, Lodge, McCormick, McNair, McNary, Nicholson, Norbeck, Oddie, Norris, Overman, Pittman, Ransdell, Reed, Missouri, Robinson, Sheppard, Shortridge, Simmons, Smith, South Carolina; Spencer, Stanfield, Stanley, Tamm, Taft, W. H. Massachusetts; Walsh, Montana, Willis, Caper, Watson, Indiana.

Total 52.
New Members for the bonus: Copeland, Dill, Edwards, Howell, Nelson, Fess, Brookhart and New, Ferris, Stephens, Frazier, Shipstead, Mayfield, Wheeler and Bruce. Bruce (pledged, according to the American Legion).

Total 15.
Total for bonus, 67.
Old members against the bonus: Ball, Borah, Reed, Pennsylvania, Duff, Dillingham, Edge, Ernest, Fernald, Glass, Keyes, King, Moses, Nelson, Newberry, Owen, Pepper, Payne, Shields, Smoot, Steiwer, Swanson, Underwood, Wadsworth, Watson, Welles, McKinley, (paired in favor of sustaining President Harding's veto).

Total 26.
New members against the bonus: Green, Vermont, who voted to sustain Harding's veto in the house.

Total against the bonus 27.
Position unknown: Bazzard, Delaware, and George, Georgia, new senators.

WARNING AGAINST PEDDLERS ISSUED BY POLICE CHIEF

Warning against peddlers was issued Friday morning by Chief of Police Lanker.

The warning followed rumors which reached the police department concerning the activities of men who have been attempting to sell fur coats in the city.

These men have been given licenses to work in the business district, and although no complaints have been filed, they are thought to have made a house-to-house canvass in some sections of the residence district, the chief said.

WORLD WIDE GUILDS' RALLY BEING HELD HERE TONIGHT

An associational rally of the World Wide Guilds of the American Association opened in this city at the First Baptist church Friday at 2:30 p. m. with the woman's conference. Mrs. J. C. Phillips, Dayton, state guild director, was in charge.

Guild conference will open at 5 p. m. with Mrs. D. A. Teradell, Columbus, guild state director in charge. Mothers' and daughters' branches will be held at 6 p. m. with a program following at 7 o'clock.

TUBERCULOSIS VICTIM TO BE BURIED IN DELPHOS

Body of Mrs. Bessie Holmes, wife of Delbert Holmes, who died in Phoenix, Arizona, while seeking recovery from tuberculosis, will arrive in Delphos at 8:15 p. m. Sunday, according to information received by relatives. She was a daughter-in-law of John A. Holmes, Spencerville-av.

Mr. and Mrs. Holmes sojourned in the west since June, 1921. Mrs. Holmes had been afflicted with the white plague for two years. They visited in South Dakota and Kansas City and finally went to Phoenix. She leaves beside her husband, her mother, a 14-year-old daughter, two brothers and a sister, Mrs. Eva List, Delphos.

Funeral services may take place Monday, but no definite arrangements have been made. Burial will be made in Walnut Grove cemetery.

EMERGENCY FORCE TO BE ORGANIZED

forces it is seen that all departments relying upon tax money for their existence will be cut to the bone and will be compelled to work with as few men as possible.

WATERWORKS UNAFFECTED
No impairment of the waterworks department will be necessary as it is self supporting and has plenty of funds for its operation. None of its surplus is available for any other purpose, however.

Working out of a merchant police will in no way protect the home owners of the city, it is pointed out, and it will be necessary for them to plan for their own protection.

City officials fear that operations of sneak thieves and second story workers will increase and that an epidemic of housebreaking will be seen unless homeowners can protect themselves.

While city commissioners deplore the necessity for the cut in forces they point out that the voters were told plainly what would be necessary should the levy fail to carry and that they have nothing to do but follow the will of the majority.

CONGREGATIONAL GYMNA TO OPEN AT GOMER FRIDAY

"Gymna" or conference, for Congregational churches of southern and central Ohio will open session Friday night at Gomer with many visiting pastors and delegates present.

The conference will continue until Monday night. Monday meetings will be held at Lesterwood.

Visiting clergymen include Rev. J. Vincent Jones, Utica, N. Y.; Rev. E. Lloyd Roberts, Columbus; Rev. William G. Jones, Iowa; Rev. J. Pugh Jones and Rev. O. Jones of Cincinnati.

Installation of the new pastor Rev. Samuel Wilding, will be the feature of the Sunday services.

ANOTHER VICTIM OF MINE EXPLOSION DIES

SPANGLER, Pa.—Overcome by after damp in the Reilly mine explosion which caused the deaths of 76 miners, John Panonik, one of the victims who was rescued alive, died last night. It was announced at the miners' hospital here today.

Panonik is survived by a wife and four children. Seward Button, director of the Pennsylvania Bureau of Mines, who is investigating the explosion, was re-checking his list of dead today. Button's original list contained the names of 76 miners but persons who declared they counted 73 bodies in the morgue here Tuesday were so insistent that the director said it was possible he made a mistake.

DEMOCRATIC CLUB IS PROJECTED

Bourbon Adherents Open Plans For County Body

LEADERS SEE ITS VALUE

Permanent Headquarters all the Year Thru

A movement was started Friday for the organization of an Allen County Democratic club, with headquarters at the parent body located in Lima, and with subsidiary organizations in each of the wards of this city and each township and town in the county.

County Chairman Lehr Miller, J. M. Madigan, George Mehahey, D. J. Kirwan and other prominent men in Democratic councils, have been discussing the plan and it was stated Friday that action may be taken soon.

It is designed to lease permanent quarters, where the Democratic organization may be perpetuated throughout the year, with "open house" continuously. Democratic leaders in this county have been considering the possible benefits that would accrue from a movement of this kind and have been investigating the workings of such bodies elsewhere, notably in Franklin-co where the value of the plan has been demonstrated in a marked manner.

VOTERS INDEPENDENT
While it is realized that the men and women voters are becoming more and more independent, it is also pointed out that this very situation is the strongest argument in favor of a party organization, to be maintained throughout the year.

Greater care is being exercised these days in the selection of candidates for office by the old parties. The voters are demanding certain standards, which must be met, one of the party leaders points out.

The movement which has progressed to the point of discussion only at this time, bids fair to grow in favor, it is stated.

Lehr Miller, county chairman, is very enthusiastic about it. "I think it is a splendid idea," Miller said. "We should have a place where adherents of the party may assemble at all times, have access to Democratic literature and get in touch with the party program. This could be done with very little expense and would be worth a great deal more than it cost."

In the opinion of J. M. Madigan this sort of thing has long been needed in Allen-co.

"It would in no way interfere with the independence of the people in their voting," Madigan said. "As a matter of fact it would be an aid, inasmuch as the results would be that the standard of men as candidates would be continually increased. This is saying nothing of a disparaging character against anyone who at any time has been a candidate for nomination or election under our party banner. The tendency of the world of politics is toward cleaner tactics, higher type of leaders and better candidates. This is inevitable. It has always been so and will continue, especially since the women have been granted the ballot. Their entry is bringing a more refined influence into political contests."

SEES THE NEED
Herman Rulman, prominent young Democrat, is one of the strongest supporters of the plan of organizing a county Democratic club.

"I can see the necessity of such a movement," Rulman said. "Our friends, the Republicans, maintain headquarters throughout the year for their party executive committee where conferences may be held and the interests of the party advanced. I believe the Democrats should do likewise, on a more elaborate scale."

Other Democrats have expressed themselves in similar vein and it is believed something definite will soon be worked out.

ARMISTICE PARADE IN READINESS

fired at two minute intervals. All those taking part in the parade are asked to be at their appointed places immediately after 1 p. m. Saturday. The parade is to start at 1:30 p. m.

Lima citizens are entering into the spirit of the day. Store windows have assumed a martial aspect and are the center of interest for many people. Homes and stores will be decorated with the red, white and blue Saturday.

Business houses will not close any time Saturday.

When the bombs are fired during the parade all clerks and the customers will face the east and pay homage to the dead. Also at 11 a. m. they will stop for a moment when the whistles blow to offer thanks that the war was ended and a prayer that no more wars may be seen.

SCHOOLS OBSERVE
First events of the Armistice program were scheduled for Friday afternoon in the schools of the city. Programs were held in each grade, also only one high school program was given.

Walter Jackson spoke at South High school. Meetings at Central high school were postponed until next week, Earl Ludwig being scheduled to talk to the junior high school Wednesday and Harry Bentley to talk to the senior high school Thursday noon.

Final arrangements for the Memorial service at Memorial Hall Saturday night will be announced Saturday. Edward Orton, president of the Columbus chamber of commerce and well known community worker will be the principal speaker and Fred Calvert will be in charge of the special music.

Following the Memorial services dances at the Elks home, the K. of C. recreation building and the Laux Academy of dancing will be held. They will be free to the public, it is announced.

Increased salary granted A. C. Arganbright by the county board of education was returned to the county treasury, prior to the time that the books were inspected by J. N. Main, Jr. Arganbright declared Friday.

In explanation of the matter, the county superintendent of schools said that at the time the board raised his pay, there was no supreme court decision against it, and Attorney General McGhee had ruled that such an increase could be granted.

"When I learned of the decision of the court," Superintendent Arganbright said, "I had drawn $322 of the increase. I voluntarily offered to refund and did so before I mentioned it to him. He did not know of the decision but told me he had learned from the auditor that I had refunded the increase."

To compensate him for the increased work created by the decision of the board to have no assistant superintendents, was the principal reason for granting Arganbright the increase, it was learned.

Mileage that the county school head had to cover was increased from 7,000 to 10,000 miles a year. In granting the raise, which was later found to be illegal, the county board took into consideration these circumstances and the fact that $3,000 a year in salaries was being saved by reducing the supervisory force under Arganbright.

To My Commission

BOYS: I am glad that you have denied the rumor that you would resign and leave my city to shift for itself since the two mill levy was defeated by the voters Tuesday. I couldn't believe it when I first heard it.

My old town needs you now worse than it has since you took office under the new form of government. Stand by your guns, boys, and do the best you can. Fight it out to the last ditch and if you lose and things go to the dogs, you will at least have the satisfaction of knowing that you went down fighting and that you did not run away.

I fail to see why my people rejected the two mill levy. It is their city, not yours. If they want it run as you will be forced to run it on the money available, then there's no more argument, but Lord help us.

LIMA BEANE

To My People

FOLKS Tomorrow is Armistice Day. I trust that as many of you as possible will join with the American Legion in a proper observance of the day.

LIMA BEANE.

To Tabernacle Builders

DEAR FRIENDS: It pleases me much—after giving the big tabernacle the once over, to find that you have anticipated the needs and desires and conveniences of the hundreds and thousands of my folks who will take part in the services there.

One can only predict large attendance and I feel certain that the desired sort of results will be attained.

LIMA BEANE.

To J. E. Collins

DEAR JOHN: Now that my people have approved the proposition laid before them by yourself and the members of the school board to issue bonds of my city in the sum of $540,000 for needed school buildings, I trust that there will be as little delay as possible in getting the work started.

It is realized abundantly that there should be no backward step no matter what the cost may be. That is the big reason which impelled my citizens to give the proposition such emphatic approval.

LIMA BEANE

To the Voters of Allen-co

MY FRIENDS: Most of you watched the straw votes in your favorite newspaper and other publications during the pre-election days. If you were the average, you drew conclusions therefrom. I'll admit I did. But what happened?

The results of the battle of ballots are known definitely now. The dope was all wrong. The straw votes failed to predict the outcome correctly. The totals in The Lima News, which conducted an unbiased, non-partisan canvass, were mostly wrong. In only one instance were they a correct barometer of what was to be expected. That was on the governorship race in the county.

There is no way to explain. Straw votes have been more or less correct in the past. One Ohio newspaper has always prided itself upon being able to foretell the election results by its survey. It fell down harder this time than any of the rest.

Independence of voters—failure to adhere to party lines—when they get in the voting booth may explain the upset of the straw votes this year. But one thing is certain. Such a canvass has been conclusively proved unreliable. It was misleading. So far

To Congressman Cable

DEAR JOHN: Some run! The wise boys are still trying to figure it out. I'll admit it has me buffaloed along with the rest of 'em.

Your race should be a warning to those seeking to cut a man off with one term in the future. The people are partial to a man if he has given good service in his first term. And the dry support that flocked to you was no small factor in the outcome.

When you get down to Washington again, flash the official figures on your Republican national committee which admitted your defeat a few weeks ago, so it will know what the folks back home really think of their young congressman. And soon thereafter, hit the powers that be for a new federal building for your home town. If you can't get it now, there's no use ever talking about it again.

AFTERMATH

(BRITTON-WALKER FIGHT)

It took Old Father Time to lick that bird,
Old Father Time that gets 'em all, at last
But Boy, Jack Britton made a fight that stirred
Yer very soul, an' made yer blood run fast.
He was a champ, was Jack, a game, game guy
Who didn't dodge, but fought 'em great an' small,
An' now his days of glory have gone by
In one last fight, the finest of 'em all.

Knew he was licked, he did; but just the same
He didn't quit, but bravely fought along,
Usin' his bean an' knowledge of the game,
Stickin' it out until the final gong.
Walker, the kid, was great, but greater still
Was Jack, who knew the odds was all again him,
An' kept on with brains an' nerve an' skill,
Givin' the last lone ounce that he had in him!

Was I a parson, I would take that bout
An' make a sermon of it, I would say.
A guy should fight to win, but stick it out,
No matter if it goes the other way.
An' if you fight the fight with all strength,
Like Britton did, an' keep your courage whole,
The Father Time may stretch you out at length,
You still will be the Captain of yer Soul!"

HOW TO RELAX AND LET GO

To vary the old saying slightly, a sound mind cannot work well in a sick body. For instance, a doctor who attempts to treat his own illness has a fool for a patient, for illness necessarily in ails one's reason and judgment. Deorum forbida qualification of the layman who undertakes to be his own physician.

As I have repeatedly pointed out, most people seem to be seeking good health. They are willing to try anything from hypophosphites to a sea voyage that purports to give one better health, which implies that they have indifferent health or do not enjoy good health. The average health standard is about 70 per centum. From the perfect state of health, or health plus, which one can and does enjoy on down to 70 per cent or less are all radditions, covering a multitude of popular symptoms and minor ailments.

Some people are content with a 70 per centum standard, cheerfully assuring inquiring friends that they are "not complaining." From the 70 per centum standard upward and downward for 10 to 20 points is the field of so-called "functional" maladies. Of course, there is no real difference between a "functional" ailment and an "organic" one, but merely an arbitrary distinction sometimes made by the kind doctor to soothe a patient's mind. Disease is disturbance of function, and function is not disturbed unless something is wrong with the organ.

So all disease is functional as well as organic, and if the arbitrary distinction is justified in some instances, it is nevertheless a bad policy for one to deceive himself that his ailment is not serious enough to require attention if it is "merely functional."

A great many individuals with health standards of from 50 to 70 per centum feel that their "nerves" are in some way to blame, and they wish they could "relax" as their well meaning friends advise, but try as they will they just can't let go. They generally assume that they live under such "high tension" what with domestic, business or professional responsibilities and all that sort of thing, that relaxation is impossible. Some of our old time "neurologists" always with a keen eye for business, helped along this joke at every opportunity, uttering a lot of ponderous nonsense about the "wear and tear of the strenuous life on the nervous system"—the strenuous life applying to business, social, domestic or any other life. A well to do patient might happen to lead. It is funny how seriously some of these "strenuous" folk take themselves.

The way to relax a "high tension" nervous system—assuming there is any such thing—or more accurately, the way to relieve the feeling which you interpret, as a demand for relaxation is very, very simple. You just take a hoe, a scythe, an axe, a tennis racket, a baseball bat or a pair of comfortable, sturdy brogans and go out and sweat—or stay indoors and sweat if you must—but anyway sweat an equivalent of two miles of oxygen on the hoof.

"CASCARETS" 10c FOR BOWELS IF CONSTIPATED

Clean your bowels! Feel fine! When you feel sick, dizzy, upset, when your head is dull or aching or your stomach is sour or gassy, just take one or two Cascarets to relieve constipation. No griping—pleasant cathartic-laxative on earth for grown-ups and children. 10c a box. Taste like candy.—Adv.

three times a day. If you try this medicine you will have no trouble in "relaxing."

Something seems to tell me that the foregoing prescription for that tense feeling will be sadly misinterpreted by some readers who will probably go and take a Turkish bath or something of the kind in the vain hope of finding the desired relief without any exertion. To any who entertain such hope I say dash it. You hire anyone to take your exercises for you or to rub it in. That is the great drawback about exercise as a remedy. We doctors have figured out various methods of persuading overnourished folk to eat less and lazy folks to exercise more, but thus far our researches have discovered no way in which the benefits of exercise may be obtained by proxy.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

"Surgcon" Indulges in Quick Language

My wife was recently operated on for a female disorder and the surgeon found a large cancer, too large to be removed. He informed me that he has burned the roots, thinking that would check it some. He said that there was a bare chance that the new X-ray machines might cure her, but that he had not kept in touch with the latest experiments along that line, so he could tell me nothing definite about it. What are his chances under treatment by the X-ray machines recently brought here from Germany?

Answer—There are too many "surgeons" of 22 caliber let loose on the community. X-ray treatment often gives relief and prolongs life in inoperable cancer, sometimes it brings about a cure. But the chances of a cure are small. When the surgeon speaks of the roots he was saving a bad case of cancer, that is, no roots, does not take nourishment from roots or grow from roots. Cancer is not a new growth, but a degeneration in previously normal tissue. The inefficiency and incompetency of this

HAVE DARK HAIR AND LOOK YOUNG

Nobody Can Tell When You Darken Gray, Faded Hair With Sage Tea

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a few drops of Sage and Sulphur Compound. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, at a ready to use, at very little cost. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. It is so easy to use, too,—on simply dampened comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and beautiful.—Adv.

VICTORY ASSURED FOR BONUS

New Congress Will Override Veto of President

RESULT OF TUESDAY'S VOTE

Situation Revealed by Poll of Both Branches

(By LAURENCE M. BENEDICT) WASHINGTON—(United Press)—The new congress will override the presidential veto of the soldier bonus bill, thus assuring its enactment, it was revealed today in a comprehensive tabulation by the United Press of adjusted compensation strength in the senate elected Tuesday.

A careful poll of the senate as it will be constituted after next March 4, based on votes of the old senators in the present congress and on pledges made by the new members during the campaign, show that 67 senators are in favor of adjusted compensation, 27 are against it, and the position of two is unknown.

A total of 67 votes for the bonus is three more than two thirds of the senate—the number required to override a veto.

HOUSE FOR BONUS

In the house, which overrode President Harding's veto of the measure last September, shortly before the senate blocked the measure by sustaining the executive's objection, sentiment is still overwhelmingly in favor of the bill.

The Democrats gained nearly twenty-five seats in the lower branch and the majority of these are known to be for the bonus.

The soldier bonus is certain to be introduced shortly after the convening of the new congress which probably will be called into special session shortly after March 4, 1923.

The measure also will be introduced again in the present congress, but it is extremely doubtful if it can be enacted during the few remaining months of the current session.

The American Legion, greatly encouraged by the increased majorities for the measure in both houses and the favorable votes for the state bonus in Illinois, Iowa, Kansas, Montana and probably Oklahoma, is preparing to launch a new drive for the federal bill.

Success of the bill, when it comes up in the new congress, will depend upon the senate. The house has always voted overwhelmingly for the bonus and will continue to do so.

Of the 18 new members elected to the senate, 15 are for the bill, the attitude of two is unknown and one is against it. The American Legion headquarters here will issue a statement shortly predicting that the passage of the bonus in the new congress is certain regardless of what position President Harding may take.

FOLL TAKEN

The United Press poll taken from the congressional record and campaign pledges of the senators-elect is as follows:

Old senators for the bonus: Ashurst, Brandegee, Brundage, Damm, Cameron, Cawaway, Colt, Cummings, Curtis, Ekins, Fletcher, Gerry, Gooding, Hale, Harrell, Harris, Harrison, Heflin, Johnson, Jones, New Mexico; Jones, Washington, Kendrick, Ladd, LaFollette, Lusk, Lodge, McCormick, McCall, McLean, McNary, Nicholson, Norbeck, Oddie, Norris, Overman, Pittman, Randall, Reed, Missouri, Robinson, Sheppard, Shortridge, Simmons, Smith, South Carolina, Spencer, Stanford, Stanley, Tamm, Tamm, Walsh, Massachusetts; Walsh, Montana; Willis, Caper, Watson, Indiana.

Total 52.

New Members for the bonus: Copeland, Dill, Edwards, Howell, Burton, Fess, Brookhart and Neely, Ferris, Stephens, Frazier, Shipstead, Mayfield, Wheeler and Bruce.

Bruce (pledged, according to the American Legion).

Total 15.

Total for bonus, 67.

Old members against the bonus: Tamm, Reed, Pennsylvania; Dill, Dillingham, Edger, Ernest, Arnold, Glass, Keyes, King, Moses, Nelson, Newberry, Owen, Pepper, Phipps, Shields, Smoot, Sterling, Swanson, Underwood, Wadsworth, Warren, Weller, McKinley (paired in favor of sustaining President Harding's veto).

Total 26.

New members against the bonus: Owen, Vermont, who voted to sustain Harding's veto in the house.

Total against the bonus 27.

WARNING AGAINST PEDDLERS ISSUED BY POLICE CHIEF

Warning against peddlers was issued Friday morning by Chief of Police Laker.

The warning followed rumors which reached the police department concerning the activities of men who have been attempting to sell fur coats in the city.

These men have been given licenses to work in the business district and although no complaints have been filed, they are thought to have made a house-to-house canvass in some sections of the residence district, the chief said.

WORLD WIDE GUILDS' RALLY BEING HELD HERE TONIGHT

An associational rally of the World Wide Guilds of the American Federation of Labor will be held at the First Baptist church Friday at 8:30 p. m. with the women's conference, Mrs. J. C. Phillips, Dayton, district guild director, was in charge.

Other conferences will open at 5 p. m. with Mrs. D. A. Terdel, Columbus, guild state director in charge. Mothers' and daughters' banquet will be held at 6 p. m. with a program following at 7 o'clock.

TUBERCULOSIS VICTIM TO BE BURIED IN DELPHOS

Body of Mrs. Bessie Holmes, wife of Delbert Holmes, who died in Phoenix, Arizona, while seeking recovery from tuberculosis, will arrive in Delphos at 8:15 p. m. Sunday, according to information received by relatives. She was a daughter-in-law of John A. Holmes, Spencerville, Ar.

Mr. and Mrs. Holmes sojourned in the west since June, 1921. Mrs. Holmes had been afflicted with the white plague for two years. They visited in South Dakota and Kansas City and finally went to Phoenix. She leaves beside her husband, her mother, a 14-year-old daughter, two brothers and a sister, Mrs. Eva List, Delphos.

Funeral services may take place Monday, but no definite arrangements have been made. Burial will be made in Walnut Grove cemetery.

forces it is seen that all departments relying upon tax money for their existence will be cut to the bone and will be compelled to work with as few men as possible.

WATERWORKS UNAFFECTED

No impairment of the waterworks department will be necessary as it is self supporting and has plenty of funds for its operation. None of its surplus is available for any other purpose, however.

Working out of a merchant police will in no way protect the home owners of the city, it is pointed out, and it will be necessary for them to plan for their own protection.

City officials fear that operations of sneak thieves and second story workers will increase and that an epidemic of housebreaking will be seen unless homeowners can protect themselves.

While city commissioners deplore the necessity for the cut in forces they point out that the voters were told plainly what would be necessary should the levy fail to carry and that they have nothing to do but follow the will of the majority.

CONGREGATIONAL GYMNAFA TO OPEN AT GOMER FRIDAY

"Gymnafa" or conference, for Congregational churches of southern and central Ohio will open session Friday night at Gomer with many visiting pastors and delegates present.

The conference will continue until Monday night.

ANOTHER VICTIM OF MINE EXPLOSION DIES

SPANGLER, Pa.—Overcome by after damp in the Kelly mine explosion which caused the deaths of 76 miners, John Panonik, one of the victims who was rescued alive, died last night. It was announced at the miners' hospital here today. Panonik is survived by a wife and four children.

Seward Butten, director of the Pennsylvania Bureau of Mines, who is investigating the explosion was checking his list of dead today. Butten's original list contained the names of 76 miners but persons who declared they counted 79 bodies in the morgue here Tuesday were so insistent that the director said it was possible he made a mistake.

DEMOCRATIC CLUB IS PROJECTED

Bourbon Adherents Open Plans For County Body

LEADERS SEE ITS VALUE

Permanent Headquarters all the Year Thru

A movement was started Friday for the organization of an Allen County Democratic club, with headquarters of the parent body located in Lima, and with subsidiary organizations in each of the wards of this city and each township and town in the county.

County Chairman Lehr Miller, J. M. Madigan, George Mehaffey, D. H. Kirwan and other prominent men in Democratic councils, have been discussing the plan and it was stated Friday that action may be taken soon.

It is designed to lease permanent quarters, where the Democratic organization may be perpetuated throughout the year, with "open house" continuously. Democratic leaders in this county have been considering the possible benefits that would accrue from a movement of this kind and have been investigating the workings of such bodies elsewhere, notably in Franklin Co., where the value of the plan has been demonstrated in a marked manner.

VOTERS INDEPENDENT

While it is realized that the men and women voters are becoming more and more independent, it is also pointed out that this very situation is the strongest argument in favor of a party organization, to be maintained throughout the year.

Greater care is being exercised these days in the selection of candidates for office by the old parties. The voters are demanding certain standards, which must be met, one of the party leaders points out. The movement which has progressed to the point of discussion only at this time, bids fair to grow in favor, it is stated.

Lehr Miller, county chairman, is very enthusiastic about it. "I think it is a splendid idea," Miller said. "We should have a place where adherents of the party may assemble at all times, have access to Democratic literature and get in touch with the party program. This could be done with very little expense and would be worth a great deal more than its cost."

In the opinion of J. M. Madigan this sort of thing has long been needed in Allen Co.

"It would in no way interfere with the independence of the people in their voting," Madigan said. "As a matter of fact it would be an aid inasmuch as the results would be that the standard of men as candidates would be continually increased. This is saying nothing of a disparaging character against anyone who at any time has been a candidate for nomination or election under our party banner. The tendency of the world of politics is toward cleaner tactics, higher type of leaders and better candidates. This is inevitable. It has always been so and will continue, especially since the women have been granted the ballot. Their entry is bringing a more refined influence into political contests."

SEES THE NEED

Herman Rulman, prominent young Democrat, is one of the strongest supporters of the plan of organizing a county Democratic club.

"I can see the necessity of such a movement," Rulman said. "Our friends, the Republicans, maintain headquarters throughout the year for their party executive committee where conferences may be held and the interests of the party advanced.

I believe the Democrats should do likewise, on a more elaborate scale."

Other Democrats have expressed themselves in similar vein and it is believed something definite will soon be worked out.

SALARY INCREASE IS REFUNDED

Arganbright Returns Illegal Raise Given Him

All money in the form of increased salary granted A. C. Arganbright by the county board of education was returned to the county treasury, prior to the time that the books were inspected by J. N. Mahan, Jr., Arganbright declared Friday.

In explanation of the matter, the county superintendent of schools said that at the time the board raised his pay, there was no supreme court decision against it, and Attorney General McGhee had ruled that such an increase could be granted.

"When I learned of the decision of the court," Superintendent Arganbright said, "I had drawn $332 of the increase. I voluntarily offered to refund and did so before Mahan finished his work. When I mentioned it to him he did not know of the decision but told me he had learned from the auditor that I had refunded the increase."

To compensate him for the decreased salary of the board to have no assistant superintendents, was the principal reason for granting Arganbright the increase, it was learned.

Meanwhile that the county school board had to cover was increased from 7,000 to 10,000 miles a year.

In granting the raise, which was later found to be illegal, the county board took into consideration these circumstances and the fact that $2,000 a year in salaries was being saved by reducing the supervisory force under Arganbright.

ARMISTICE PARADE IN READINESS

fired at two minute intervals.

All those taking part in the parade are asked to be at their appointed places immediately after 1 p. m. Saturday. The parade is to start at 1:30 p. m.

Lima citizens are entering into the spirit of the day. Store windows have assumed a martial aspect and are the center of interest for many people. Homes and stores will be decorated with the red, white and blue Saturday.

Business houses will not close any time Saturday.

When the bombs are fired during the parade all clerks and the customers will face the east and pay homage to the dead. Also at 11 a. m. they will stop for a moment when the whistles blow to offer thanks that the war was ended and a prayer that no more wars may be seen.

SCHOOLS OBSERVE

First events of the Armistice program were scheduled for Friday afternoon in the schools of the city. Programs were held in each grade, although only one high school program was given.

Walter Jackson spoke at South High school. Meetings at Central high school were postponed until next week, Earl Ludwig being scheduled to talk to the junior high school Wednesday and Harry Bentley to talk to the senior high school Thursday noon.

Final arrangements for the Memorial service at Memorial Hall Saturday night will be announced Saturday. Edward Orton, president of the Columbus chapter of commerce and well known community worker will be the principal speaker and Fred Calvert will be in charge of the special music.

Following the Memorial services dances at the Elks home, the K. of C. recreation building and the Laux Academy of dancing will be held. They will be free to the public, it is announced.

"PUBLIC AGAINST PRESENT RULE"

Psycho-Analyst Thus Explains World Political Upheavals

PEOPLE DEMAND POWER

But Unaware of What They Want, He Says

(By DUDLEY SIDDALL)
BROOKLYN — (Special) — Justice for the poor as well as the rich is demanded by members of the bar association who have banded themselves into a newly incorporated "Voluntary Public Defender Committee of Kings County."

They urge the creation of a public office to be known as "the public defender," whose functions shall be to oppose the prosecuting attorney in all criminal cases where the defendant lacks money to hire counsel, collective evidence, and otherwise safe-guard his interests.

"The state employs a prosecuting attorney and gives him whatever appropriation he needs to put people in jail," said Attorney Joseph Goldstein, who initiated the movement, and the state should likewise finance a "public defender" to keep innocent people out of jail. This is simple justice, nothing more."

INTRODUCED BILL.
Four times Goldstein has had bills introduced in the New York Assembly providing for the creation of such an office. Each time the bill was killed in committee.

Now he has taken a new tack, by forming a voluntary committee of Brooklyn lawyers who will contribute whatever time and money is needed to defend penniless persons charged with crime. Agitation for public defenders in all states will be kept up.

Anna W. Hochfelder, woman attorney, was one of the first to offer her services.

"Prosecutors are supposed to see that justice is done," said she. "But it is only human for them to measure their success by the convictions they get. A state-financed 'public defender' should be provided for the defense, just as a district attorney is provided to handle the prosecution."

Until such a time as "public defenders" are created in New York state I shall be glad to serve on the voluntary defenders committee."

Supreme Court Justice Fawcett is one of several Brooklyn judges who have publicly endorsed the plan.

The Brooklyn attorneys behind the movement hope to interest bar associations in all parts of the country in establishing similar arrangements for adequately defending arrested persons who lack funds.

Clothes on the Divided Payment Plan

Imagine, folks, being able to buy clothes without having to put your hand in your pocket and making your bank roll call for help. We have been told that thousands of men, women and children in town are taking advantage of the opportunity offered by the When Store to buy clothing without paying for them at time of purchase. Upon inquiry we found that this store gives the privilege and convenience of selecting clothes and paying for them as you earn your income on a divided payment plan. Certainly this is an ideal way to be well dressed without having to pay any extra cost for the accommodation of a charge account.

"SHE'S ALL PUFFED UP, LORD KNOWS!"

(By MARGARET ROHE)

My lady takes her powder puff And powders well her nose. And then she takes another puff Which thru her nose she blows. Her life is just puff after puff, She's all puffed up, Lord knows.

NEW YORK — (Special) — It is true the blue laws are after my Lady Nicotine, but thus far the only thing blue about her is her smoke. Enter any up-to-date hotel, tea-room or restaurant around the lunch, tea, dinner and after-theatrical supper hours and when you have penetrated the smoke screen you are sure to find a smoke queen.

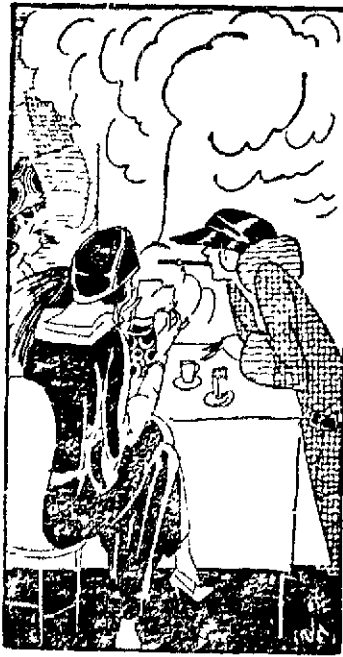

To be sure, the dear girls are making an awful effort to get away from the pernicious cigarette—you can tell that by the length of their cigarette holders. Quite the swankiest ones are of tortoise shell, onyx banded in brilliant, or ivory banded in black, and they measure, conservatively speaking, seven inches from tip to tip.

STUNNING CASES.
An artistic amateur is evolving steadily original cigarette holders for his lady friends by winding plain composition holders, with colorful silk threads like a fishing pole and then giving the whole thing a coat of shellac. Sounds a bit fishy to be sure, but with the bait a scented cigarette in one end and a pair of red lips at the other this novel cigarette holder is a good thing to get a line on.

Given a glimpse into the ubiquitous head or brocade bag of the smart maid or matron these days a cigarette case and holder are as inevitable a part and parcel of the accoutrements as the duplex powder and rouge compact and the lip stick.

What every woman smokes is indeed an amusing study in contrasts. Where one or two go in strong for the smartly monogrammed cigarettes, exotically scented ones or those erotically rolled in black or colored paper, the mass of feminine cigarette devotees have a penchant for the common or garden brands that father knows about or you'd walk a mile for.

"LADY NIC"
There is a swagger little shop just off the Avenue called "Lady Nic,"

"HER LIFE IS JUST PUFF AFTER PUFF."
"SHE'S ALL PUFFED UP, LORD KNOWS"

where everything for and appertaining to the gentle art of smoking as practiced by the female of the species may be found. Such monogrammed, diversely tipped and subtly scented coffin nails, ornate boxes, artistic cases, swanky holders—to get all smoked up about and with. Yet strong men curse and weak men chew their finger nails while their favorite corner tobacco shops—those erstwhile sacred masculine sanctums are invaded these days by vociferous females loudly clamoring for "Leantinas," "Hell Bells" and "Fortunate Hiss."

No matter how plebeian her taste in brands, however, given the combination of a pretty girl and a lighted cigarette and all our preconceived Mid-Victorian prejudices are bound to go up in the smoke wreaths curling from her incarnadined lips.

No longer is there a double standard for smokers—a sex distinction for cigarettes—so smoke up, Tom, Dick and Mary, while the cigarette dealers all do a Russian business to say nothing of an Egyptian and a Virginian one.

FORMER LIMA OIL MAN DIES AT HOME IN EAST

Louis G. Sands, vice president of the Oil Well Supply company, Pittsburgh, and former manager of the Oil Well Supply company of Lima, died at his home in the east, according to word received in this city.

Sands was connected with the Lima firm more than 25 years ago. He was well known to oil men in this vicinity.

Death came, the report says, after a brief illness.

All members of Lima Chapter No. 52, Women of Mooseheart Legion are requested to meet Saturday at 1 p. m. at Moose Temple to participate in the Armistice Day parade.

18TH AMENDMENT NOT IN DANGER

Volstead Sees Laxity But Not Ultimate Repeal

GRANTVILLE FALLS, Minn., (United Press)—A period of lax enforcement may follow the "wet" wave that swept the country Tuesday, Andrew J. Volstead, "father" of the dry enforcement act and defeated for congress, told the United Press today.

"There may be a period of lax enforcement, but the 18th amendment will always remain in the constitution of the United States," Volstead said. "The wets may alter enforcement laws; they may be more successful in blocking enforcement than they have been—but they will never be able to repeal the 18th amendment."

"Fundamentally, the people of the United States are against the saloon. They have seen enough of intoxication and strong liquor. I believe there never again will be licensed saloons. If any one finds people winking at enforcement against light wines and beer but the people will never countenance the open return of strong drink."

Congressman Volstead will remain in Grantville Falls following his defeat in the seventh district by Rep. O. J. Kvale.

"I will find something to do," he said. "I have no complaint to make. I am only grateful to the people of this district for the willing support they have given me in the past."

PEONAGE CHARGED

Death of Mail Carrier Leads to Arrest

ATLANTA, Ga. — (Associated Press)—John Waller, charged with having held "Pony" Thompson, 59, in peonage eight years, was ordered to appear before United States Commissioner W. C. Carter today in a preliminary hearing of his case.

Both Thompson and Waller were taken in custody after the death of James C. Langston, a mail carrier, whose body was found near Fairburn, Ga. Thompson said that he had been held as a peon on the Waller farm eight years, that in this period he received only $20 from Waller and that he was recaptured twice after having escaped.

After arrest Thompson was an uncle of his wife and had come to the farm voluntarily. Thompson and Waller were cleared of the murder.

Waller has charged that the peonage warrant was issued in a conspiracy to connect me with the Langston slaying.

Buying in Quantities Lowers Prices of Clothing

The secret of the success of big national institutions is found in their ability to sell merchandise of guaranteed quality at the lowest prices. These firms, because of their tremendous volume of business are able to buy their merchandise for less money than the small store and consequently are able to sell their merchandise at lower prices. Such is the case with the When Store in this town, which is only one of the great many When Stores throughout the country. Their buyers in New York are in a position, because of the business of their orders, to secure merchandise of guaranteed quality at the lowest possible cost, whereas the secret of remarkable values that the When Store is noted for giving.

Sunday Claims Talk Monopoly In Tabernacle

DAYTON — (United Press)—"Say, Billy, where were you when we were out carrying a gun?" A uniformed hecker, rising from his seat in the packed Billy Sunday tabernacle last night, called out this question to the evangelist.

"Sit down, you lobster!" shouted the evangelist. "There is only one of us who can wind-jam this tabernacle at a time and I've got the floor now. Give him a seat, boys, I want to talk to him. He's the kind that needs Christ." Ostentatiously the uniformed man reached for his hip pocket and the crowd stirred with a horrified thrill. As a policeman reached him the hecker drew from his pocket a leather bill fold. The officer led him to the open air.

Society News

A week of activity for Lima club women will begin next Monday and continue through the week. Several of the most interesting events in the club circles for the year are scheduled for the coming week, which will be marked with unusual interest for women affiliated with the various clubs.

Members of the Arbutus, Lotus, Delphin and Woman's clubs, four of the most prominent clubs in the city will gather at the Kerr home, W. Market-st., Monday afternoon for a joint meeting.

Mrs. Robert C. Morris, Toledo, will come to this city as the lecturer for the occasion. Mrs. Morris will have as her interesting subject, "First Chapter in the Story of Woman."

Mrs. Harry Workman will be hostess for the joint meeting with the following assistants: Mrs. J. K. Bannister, Mrs. T. K. Jacobs, Mrs. E. S. Taylor, Mrs. H. A. Moore and Mrs. T. R. Terwilliger.

Paramount in clubdom will be the annual convention of the northwest district of the Ohio Federated of Women's clubs, which will be held in Lima Thursday and Friday. Other than the regular business sessions and addresses various festivities have been arranged for the propitious occasion.

Miss Gail Parmontor, W. Springfield, welcomed a group of guests at her home Thursday evening in compliment to Miss Harry E. Goldsberry, who will leave during the coming week for her future home in Lorain.

Bridge was the pastime and at the close of the playing with Mrs. F. P. O'Connor holding high score and Mrs. Frank Seale, low, a dainty buffet luncheon was served. Appointments were carried out in yellow and white and the hostess was assisted by Mrs. G. L. Parmontor and Mrs. R. W. Farmer.

Miss Parmontor's guests included Mrs. William J. Noonan, Mrs. Clarence Kilmer, Mrs. Karl Reitz, Mrs. W. L. Ayers, Mrs. Walter Reitz, Mrs. Robert Connelly, Mrs. Frank Seale, Mrs. William Reitz, Mrs. Vernon A. Fisher, Mrs. P. P. O'Connor, Mrs. Val Kohl, Mrs. Emil Levy, Mrs. H. E. Scheide, Mrs. Howard Webb, Mrs. Orrin June, Mrs. Chester Riden, Mrs. Guy Copus, Mrs. G. L. Parmontor, Miss Marjorie Henderson and the honor guest.

Friends and neighbors gathered at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Heffner, E. High-st., Thursday evening and tendered their farewells before their departure for their new home in Lima.

The evening was pleasantly whiled away in music, games and social chat after which refreshments were served.

Those present included Messrs. and Mesdames Gid Overly, Henry Monrey, Arthur Monrey, Isaac Monrey, Jess Heffner, Carl Douglas, Waldo Severn, Will Warner, Roscoe Severn, Charles Mason, Robert Heffner, Harry Ault, Edward Heffner, B. Monrey, Misses Keturah Monrey, Helen Mason, Marjorie Heffner, Winifred Mason, Elsie Heffner, Tille, Ada and Jessie Monrey, Maxine and Elizabeth Monrey, Helen Ault, Edith and Ruth Severn, Mary Monrey, Margery Mason, Janet Douglas, Gertrude Severn, Helen and Lucile Ault, Alice Ault, Mrs. Mary Sullivan, Mrs. Greenewalt, Mrs. Clarissa Monrey and Miss Hardin.

Arthur Heffner, Lawrence Mason, Dwight Hamman, Bryan and Raymond Heffner, Everett Monrey, Frank Anderson, William Children, Eugene Douglas, Woodrow Severn, Howard Heffner, Clinton Warner, Wilbur Severn, Dolt, Richard and Robert Monrey, Robert Holmes, Richard Mason and Richard and Donald Heffner.

Dr. and Mrs. Lee Foster and son John and daughter Sue Foster, Portland, Ind., Mrs. May Foster and daughters Helen and Ruth, Farmington, Ind., and Mrs. Edward Monks, Winchester, Ind., returned to their homes after visit with Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Landis, S. Collett-st.

Mrs. John S. Sparling, Missoula, Mont., a former resident of Lima, is the house-guest of her sister, Mrs. John DeTurk, S. Elizabeth-st.

SUSIE SMART'S ADVICE

Dear Miss Smart: Am a very disappointed girl and I am coming to you with my troubles. I went with a splendid young man occasionally but stopped his invitations because I could see that my girl friend was in love with him. I never really said so but I could tell easily enough. Now they have become engaged I realize now that I am the girl for him and that he is in love with me. What can I do?

WORRIED.
JUST stop worrying over "what might have been." What I proof have you that "you are the only girl for this man." Certainly if he considered you that he would have asked you to marry him. That would have been the surest and safest proof. It is most unlikely that he would have asked your friend if he had not cared deeply for her.

The only thing for you to do is to assume that he does care for her. It is not for you to interfere in any way in their affairs. Learn to take life's opportunities when they offer.

Dear Miss Smart: (1) It is alright for a boy to put his arm around a girl as he talks? (2) Which is the best way for a girl to fix her hair when it is bobbed? (3) How is my writing? (4) Are ortoids to be worn this winter? (5) How long is bobbed hair going to stay in style?

(1) After much deep thought and consideration on your "serious" question, "Two Eyes," I have reached the conclusion that a boy can really talk just as well as he keeps his arm where it belongs. Don't you agree with me? (2) The style which she finds most becoming to her. (3) Your writing is fair. (4) Oxford and woolen hose will be very popular this winter. (5) I am sorry but I am a failure at Prophecy. Bobbed hair has given us so many surprises that it is not safe to make any prediction on it.

Dear Miss Smart: I would like you to tell me the table decorations for Thanksgiving. am planning to have one and I want to have the table decorated nicely.

There really are no specified decorations for a Thanksgiving dinner. Of course, the book stores always handle place cards and little favors appropriate to the occasion but other than these there are few appointments which you can use besides flowers or candles.

CLUB CALENDAR

SATURDAY
Fortnightly Bridge club, Mrs. Frank Baxter.
Light Bearers of Market Street Presbyterian church, Miss Jean Butcher, 2:30 p. m.

R. D. Hubbard was pleasantly surprised Thursday evening when Mrs. Hubbard invited a group of friends to their home in honor of his birthday anniversary.

Five hundred was the diversion of the evening and at the close of the playing with Mrs. Elmer Barth and Samuel Roeder holding high score the hostess served a delicious luncheon.

Those enjoying the evening included Messrs. and Mesdames J. H. Aligre, Elza Durbin, Elmer Barth, Will Aligre, H. B. Hoffman, R. B. Hayes, Frank Chew, Samuel Roeder, E. G. Atkinson, J. W. Gallaspie, H. C. Thew, Thomas Zinkan, A. G. Krock, Mrs. Charles Jones, Mrs. Clara Frey, Detroit, Miss Alice Crabb and Miss Margaret Jones.

Mrs. Cora Helpman, N. Main-st., welcomed the members of the Volunteer Class of the First Christian church at her home at an all day meeting, Wednesday.

At noon an elaborate luncheon was served, after which a business session was held. Meetings have been postponed until January because of the evangelistic meetings.

Mrs. Clem Crow held high score among the guests and Mrs. S. B. DeTurk among the men's, Thursday, when Mrs. R. J. Kuhn and Mrs. J. Neuman entertained the members of the Auxiliaries Temps club at the Elks' Home.

At the close of the playing a pretty appointed 6 o'clock tea was served. Yellow chrysanthemums were arranged in the rooms, where the tables were laid for playing.

Guests other than members were Mrs. H. E. Simonson, Mrs. Sudie Knisely and Mrs. Crow.

Mrs. Karl Kominski, Jean Court, will entertain the club in two weeks.

Miss Mabel May, Cincinnati, formerly of Lima, will arrive in this city Sunday to visit with Lima friends.

Red Circle Class of the First United Brethren church will meet Friday evening with Mrs. Walter Greenawalt, 620 Prospect-av.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Winter, Dingledine-av., will entertain at their week-end guests, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Moffett and son, Chicago.

Light Bearers of Market Street Presbyterian church will meet Saturday at 2:30 p. m. with Miss Jean Butcher, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Butcher, 1526 Lakewood-av. The assistant hostesses will be Misses Mildred Sullivan and Alice Thompson.

WARM COLORS

Warm colors such as coral, soft orange or brilliant red are the favorites in velvet evening and dinner frocks. They are draped or caught up at the waist so as to give an uneven hem line, and are frequently untrimmed.

FOR SPORTS WEAR

A snappy three-piece suit has a coat of tulle camel's hair and a blouse and skirt of brown and tan checked material. It is made sleeveless and worn with a white batiste blouse.

LEATHER AND FUR

Short jackets of caracul are made smart and jaunty by belts and straps about the collar and cuffs of leather—usually of bright red or royal blue. Frequently a leather hat matches the coat trimming.

CHILI'S MOST BEAUTIFUL WOMAN

Regina de Bettencourt, daughter of an attaché of the Chilean Embassy in London, has been selected as the most beautiful woman in Chili by E. O. Hoppe, famous artist photographer. The Chilean beauty is the wife of the Earl of Lisburne.

Thanksgiving Dinner Menu

NOW the words "Thanksgiving Day" call to mind happy days when families gathered together, and then sad memories, when perchance those days are no more!

To set apart a day at the end of harvest when the crops were in as a day of thanksgiving to God for his mercies has been a custom in all countries for centuries. It was spoken of as the Harvest Feast or Festival.

When the early colonial settlers wish to make a thank offering to God for their new country and home they chose a day in November which should be devoted to prayer and thanksgiving called a "Thanksgiving Day." Families gathered at grandmother's house, the best of the land's offerings were cooked, and as the people prospered the dinner grew in proportion and tables "groined" with the goodies.

ALWAYS TURKEY
The meat chosen for this dinner was that from the turkey, a bird which first was wild, coming from Mexico, and later domesticated.

The vegetables were those grown during the summer and were ready for winter use—the onion, squash, pumpkin, turnips and potatoes.

The pumpkin has always been used for pies and when a pie is made from a good pumpkin, combined with eggs, milk and spice, no better pie can be made. The sweet potatoes in the south takes the place to ad eggs of the northern pumpkin.

OF GOLD LACE
A dance frock that is unusually lovely is of sheer gold lace, made over a foundation of gold cloth, which introduces gay colors with streamers of chiffon hung from ruched rosettes that mark the waistline.

SYMPHONY IN GRAYS
A symphony in grays is revealed in an evening coat of tulle and silver brocade, combined with puffings of bright silver and topped by a collar of pointed fox. The lining is of jade green, silver embroidered.

THE "LAID" PUDDING
In some parts of New England a "laid" pudding was always served at Thanksgiving dinner. It was a pudding made with layers of

Jack Flirts With Fate

By ZOE BECKLEY

As Jack heard Stanley's voice over the wire presumably from Edna's room he kicked the door of the booth open. He felt as though he were stifled. "Fred Lord!" The receiver at the other end sounded as though it had fallen to the table. There was a murmur. Then in panic Edna's voice sounded: "Who is it? What do you want?"

Gently Jack replaced his own receiver on the hook.

From the booth he went to the clerk's desk and arranged to take the first train for Paris. Then he went upstairs to pack. He had completely forgotten Nella and she was content to be forgotten for the time. Jack passed deliberately, with an absence of hurry that had something menacing about it. It was only when he came to the revolver in its nest among the handkerchiefs that a violent spasm of emotion passed over him. Then he packed this in his bag, too, and his cold methodical manner came back.

His telephone rang. "Long distance, sir. Hold the wire," the operator said.

Jack's hand, as he held the receiver for the first time trembled. Edna's voice came over the wire. "Jack, dearest, was that you on the phone a while ago?"

"Yes."

"Good God, Jack! Why do you—what is the matter, dear? I can't recognize your tone at all. Is there anything wrong?"

He took a long time to answer. It seemed to him as though his next words hung the fate of their marriage. Either the woman downstairs was lying, or—Edna was most accomplished—heilishly accomplished actress.

It seemed to Jack as though his heart had risen to his throat and was pounding, swelling there, suffocating him. There was a dazzle before his eyes. He struggled for breath—for sanity—for faith.

"Speak to me, Jack!" Edna's voice was almost a scream.

It was only with the most terrific effort that Jack succeeded at last. "Edna, I'm all right. And I am sure you are. I shan't say anything just now. Later I'll ring you again. I must run down to see someone at once. So long—dearest!"

But when he got downstairs was gone. She was no fool, had seen his face in time to escape. Then Jack got into his coat calling a taxicab gave the chauffeur the name of the hotel at Cousing was staying.

CHAPTER II

Darragh in blanket outfit, pair of snow-shoes on his back, a rifle in his muffled hand, came trudging up from the lake. He and Stormont watched Lannis riding away with the two horses.

"He'll make it all right, but it's time he started," said the latter.

Darragh nodded: "Some storm. Where is Eve?"

"In her room."

"What is she going to do, Jack?"

"Marry me as soon as possible. She wants to stay here for a few days but I can't leave her here alone. I think I'll telephone to Ghost Lake for a sleigh."

"Let me talk to her," said Darragh in a low voice.

"Do you think you'd better—at such a time?"

"I think it's a good time. It will divert her mind, anyway. I want her to come to Harrod Place."

"She won't," said Stormont grimly.

"She might. Let me talk to her."

Stormont hesitated, looked at him, nodded. Darragh took his rifle against the bench on the kitchen porch. They entered the house slowly. And met Eve descending the stairs.

The girl looked at Darragh, astonished, then her pale face flushed with anger.

"What are you doing in this house?" she demanded unsteadily.

"Have you no decency, no shame?"

"Yes," he said, "I am ashamed of what my kinsman has done to you and yours. That is partly why I am here."

"You came here as a spy," she said with cold contempt. "You lie about your name; you lied about your purpose. You came here to betray Dad! He'd know it he would have killed you!"

"Yes, he would have. But—do you know why I came here, Eve?"

"I've told you!"

"And you are wrong. I didn't come here to betray Mike Church; I came to save him."

"Do you suppose I believe a man who has lied to Dad?" she cried.

"I don't ask you to, Eve. I shall let somebody else prove what I say. I don't blame you for your attitude. God knows I don't blame Mike Church. He stood up like a man to Henry Harrod. . . . All I ask is to undo some of the rotten things that my uncle did to you and yours. And that is partly why I came here."

The girl said passionately: "Neither Dad nor I want anything from Harrod Place or from you. Do you suppose you can come here after Dad is dead and pretend you want to make amends for what your uncle did to us?"

"Eve," said Darragh gravely, "I've made some amends already. You don't know it, but I have. . . . You may not believe it, but I liked your father. He was a real man. Had anybody done to me what Henry Harrod did to your father, I'd have behaved as your father behaved; I'd never have budged from this spot; I'd have hunted where I chose; I'd have borne an implacable hatred against Henry Harrod and Harrod Place, and every soul in it!"

The girl, silenced, looked at him without belief.

He said: "I am not surprised that you distrust what I say. But the man you are going to marry was a junior officer in my command. I have no closer friend than Jack Stormont. Ask him whether I am to be believed."

ASTONISHED, the girl turned a flushed, incredulous face to Stormont.

He said: "You may trust Darragh as you trust me. I don't know what he has to say to you, dear. But whatever he says will be the truth."

Darragh said gravely: "Through a misunderstanding you father came into possession of stolen property, Eve. He did not know it had been stolen. I did. But Mike Church would have believed me if I had told him that the case of jewels in his possession had been stolen from a woman. . . . Quintana stole them. By accident they came into your father's possession. I learned of this. I had promised this woman to recover her jewels."

"I came here, for that purpose. Eve. And for two reasons; first, because I learned that Quintana also was coming here to rob your father of these gems; second, because, when I knew your father, and knew you, I concluded that it would be an outrage to call on the police. It would mean prison for Church, misery and ruin for you, Eve. So I tried to steal the jewels. . . . to save you both."

He looked at Stormont, who seemed astonished.

"To whom do these jewels belong, Jim?" demanded the Trooper.

"To the young Grand Duchess of Esthonia. . . . Do you remember that I befriended her over there?"

"Do you remember that the Reds were accused of burning her children and looting it?"

"Yes, I remember."

"Well, it was Quintana and his gang of international criminals who did that," said Darragh dryly.

And, by accident this time, the case of jewels, emblazoned with the coat of arms of the Grand Duchess of Esthonia, came into your father's possession. That is the story, Eve."

There was a silence. The girl looked at Stormont, flushed painfully, looked at Darragh.

Then, without a word, she turned, ascended the stairs, and reappeared immediately carrying the leather case.

"Thank you, Mr. Darragh," she said simply; and laid the case in his hand.

"But," said Darragh, "I want you to do a little more, Eve. The owner of those gems is my guest at Harrod Place. I want you to give them to her yourself."

"I—I can't go to Harrod Place," stammered the girl.

"Please don't visit the sins of Henry Harrod on me, Eve."

"—don't. But—but that place."

After a silence, "If Eve feels that way," began Stormont awkwardly, "I couldn't become associated with you in business, Jim."

"I'd rather sell Harrod Place than lose you," retorted Darragh almost sharply. "I want to go into business with you, Jack—if Eve will permit me."

She stood looking at Stormont, the heightened color playing in her cheeks as she began to comprehend the comradeship between these two men.

Slowly she turned to Darragh, offered her hand:

"I'll go to Harrod Place," she said in a low voice.

Darragh's quick smile brightened the somber gravity of his face.

"Eve," he said, "when I came over here this morning from Harrod Place I was afraid you would refuse to listen to me; I was afraid you would not even see me. And so I brought with me—somebody to whom I felt certain you would listen. . . . I brought with me a young girl—a poor refugee from Russia, once wealthy, today almost penniless. . . . Her name is Theodora. . . . Once she was Grand Duchess of Esthonia. . . . But this morning a clerkman from Five Lakes changed her name. . . . To such friends as you and Jack she is Rieca Darragh now. . . . and she's having a wonderful time on her new snow-shoes."

He took Eve by one hand and Stormont by the other, and drew them to the kitchen door and kicked it open.

Thru the swirling snow, over on the lake-slope at the timber edge, a graceful, boyish figure in scarlet and white wool moved swiftly over the drifts with all the naive delight of a child with a brand new toy.

All aglow and a trifle breathless, she met Darragh just beyond the veranda, rested on a muffled hand on his shoulder while he knelt and unbuckled her snow-shoes, stepped lightly from them and came forward to Eve with outstretched hand and a sudden winning gravity in her lovely face.

"We shall be friends, surely," she said in her quick, winning voice—"because my husband has told me—and I am so grateful for you—and I need a girl friend—"

Holding both Eve's hands, her mittens dangling from her wrist, she looked into her eyes very steadily.

Slowly Eve's eyes filled: more slowly Rieca kissed her on both cheeks, framed her face in both hands, kissed her lightly on the lips.

Then, still holding Eve's hands, she turned and looked at Stormont.

"I remember you now," she said. "You were with my husband in Lima."

She freed her right hand and held it out to Stormont. He had the grace to kiss it and did it very well for a Yankee.

Together they entered the kitchen door and turned into the dining room on the left, where were chairs around the plain pine table.

Darragh said: "The new mistress of Harrod Place has selected your quarters, Eve. They adjoin the quarters of her friend, the Countess Orloff-Strelitz."

"Valentine begged me," said Rieca, smiling. "She is going to be lonely without me. All hours of day and night we were trotting into one another's rooms."

She looked gravely at Eve: "You will like Valentine; and she will like you very much. . . . As for me—I already love you."

She put one arm around Eve's shoulders: "How could you even think of remaining here all alone? Why, I should never close my eyes for thinking of you, dear."

Eve's head dropped; she said in a stifled voice: "I'll go with you."

"I want to. . . . I'm very tired."

"We had better go now," said Darragh. "Your things can be brought over later. If you'll dress for snow-shoeing, Jack can pack what clothes you need. . . . Are there snow-shoes for him, too?"

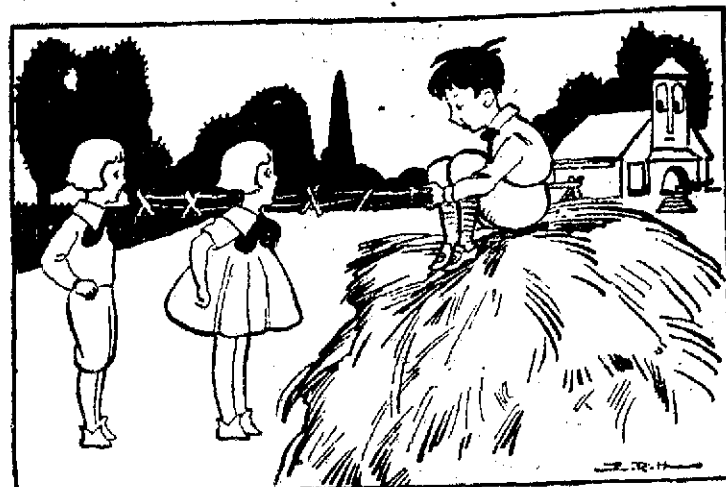

Eve turned tragically to her lover: "In Dad's closet—" she said, choking; then turned and went up the stairs, still clinging to Rieca's hand and drawing her with her.

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

Little Boy Blue

BY OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON

"Hello, there!" he said. "Who are you, and what's wrong?"

When Nancy and Nick found that Mother Goose's broomstick was not to be found and that Humpty Dumpty knew nothing about it, they looked at the list Mother Goose had given them.

The next name on it was Boy Blue.

Where does he live?" asked Nancy.

"Just down the road," answered Humpty Dumpty. "But no doubt you'll find him fast asleep. He's likely not to know a thing about Mother Goose's lost broom."

The Twins thanked him and departed.

Pretty soon they came to a haycock, and sure enough, they saw a pair of feet and heard someone snoring.

"It's too bad to waken him," said Nancy, "but we must. You switch his nose, Nick, and I'll pull his ear, and—there! That's the way!"

Sure enough, Little Boy Blue sat

don't. Why, where are the sheep, and the sheep. I don't see them anywhere." And he picked up horns and blew a long, loud blast. The first thing the Twins knew he was running thru the field, dear life, without so much as a goodby.

There are fine manners for you, dear old Nick. More interested in his own affairs than ours. Nancy sighed. "Most everybody, it seems," she said. "Come, we'll never find the broom if it don't hurry."

Dandruff Soon

Ruins The Hair

Girls—if you want plenty of beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do by means get rid of dandruff, for it starves your hair and ruin it if you don't do much good to it. It doesn't do much good to it to brush or wash it out. The only way to get rid of dandruff is to dig it, then you destroy it entirely. This, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when tiring; use enough to moisten the hair and rub it in gently with the finger. By morning, most if not all of dandruff will be gone, and three or more applications will completely solve and entirely destroy every sign and trace of it. You will find, too, that all itching digging of the scalp will stop, and hair will look and feel a hundred better. You can get liquid arvon at drug store. It is inexpensive and cures is all you will need, no how much dandruff you have, simple remedy never fails.

TRAVEL ALL NIGHT TO SEE SHOW

New York's Elite Present When Cleveland Playhouse Opens

THEATRE CALLED FINEST

Keith's Now Housed in $3,000,000 Structure

CLEVELAND, O., (Special)—Taking an all-night trip to see a vaudeville show! That is what some of New York's "four hundred," with its chief art, dramatic and literary critics and connoisseurs, did when they came to this city to take part in the opening of B. F. Keith's new $7,000,000 theater and building here.

This theater party were Mrs. Carroll Livingston Walworth, who was formerly Miss Edith Gould; Mrs. Richard T. Wilson, sister-in-law of Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt, and other prominent New York society members.

GREATEST THEATER

This building is the world's greatest theater building. Unusual features make it unique; an art gallery lined with masterpieces and decorated with antiques; marble columns, large crystal chandeliers, a rug from Czechoslovakia; two women's smoking rooms in oriental design, cosmetic rooms and a marble-lined art gallery looking down upon the gallery of art.

The auditorium carries out the gorgeousness of the reception rooms. It seats 3000.

Back stage, the actors get as elaborate a welcome as do the patrons. Barber shop, beauty parlor, bathrooms, golf training course, rest rooms, tailor shop, laundry and kitchen are some of the conveniences. There is also a playroom for actors' children. And down in the basement is a special animal room with bath.

The value of the theater alone is placed at about $3,300,000 by Manager John F. Royal.

MANY MISTAKES MADE IN OHIO WET AND DRY VOTING

YOUNGSTOWN — Investigation of a lone dry vote cast against 123 wet votes in one of the East Youngstown precincts in Tuesday's elections disclosed that the "dry" vote was cast by a man who was somewhat under the influence of liquor. He was arrested shortly after leaving the election booth and told the officer triumphantly that he had voted "no" against an "attempt to make East Youngstown dry." His neighbors threatened to ostracize him for his lack of "community spirit."

Hundreds of people made mistakes in casting their votes on the light wine and beer amendment, which was commonly known as prohibition amendment. Drys nullified their convictions by voting "yes," thinking it meant a vote for prohibition, while some voted "no," thinking that it signified their wish to be against prohibition.

PERSISTENCE

RELEASE WON ON ACCIDENT PLEA

Reeling for Two Years, Prisoner Tells Judge Jackson

Joe Brown, boiler maker, Boise, Idaho, has had every appearance of being intoxicated for over two years.

At least, that was his claim in police court Friday morning, when he was arraigned on a charge of drunkenness.

Brown asserted that his spine had been injured in an accident two years ago and that since then he has been unable to walk without reeling.

Judge Jackson accepted the man's story and dismissed the case. Sam Holland, negro, 30, laborer at the Smith Construction company, pleaded guilty to drunkenness and was fined $15.

James Gallagher, 40, of Pittsburgh, Pa., was fined $25 and sentenced to 10 days in jail for cutting. Lester Woods, 18, 1817 S. Main-st., pleaded guilty to stealing coal and was fined $10 and sentenced to 10 days in the county jail. George Snel, Jr., 22, 204 S. Rose, was fined $10 and sentenced to 10 days in jail. Bert King, 35, 308 S. Rose, was fined $10 and sentenced to 10 days in jail.

Rosedale-av., both negroes, were fined $10 each when they confessed to taking coal from railroad cars.

SEES REBUKE TO STANDPATTERS

Democratic Chief Gives Views on Election Results

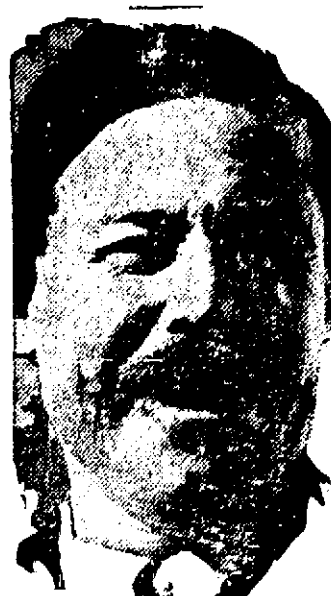

CLINTON, Mass. — (Associated Press)—Senator David I. Walsh, as chairman of the Democratic senatorial campaign committee, in a statement today said that the election on Tuesday was not so much a Democratic victory as a rebuke to "standpat and retrogressive forces now in control of the national policy."

"I am inclined," he said, "to regard the result of Tuesday's election as somewhat in the nature of a passive political revolution. It indicates widespread dissatisfaction and discontent expressed by the electorate against the only agency in their government which they could protest—the present administration. The people have emphatically rejected the promiscuous bestowal of subsidies and bounties thru tariff protection to the few at the expense of the many; a post-bellum tax program which shifts tax burdens from big business to small business and from the wealthy to the impoverished."

"In many eastern states and indeed a considerable extent throughout the middle west there seems to be a marked tendency to resent the restriction of personal liberty which the Volstead act imposes."

"I hope in view of the election that the Democratic party may become the militantly liberal party as

VILLA WOUNDED, IS REPORT

Francisco Villa, former Mexican bandit, is said to have been seriously wounded in a battle with rebel troops near his ranch at Canutillo.

that we shall have a strong conservative and a strong liberal party rather than two parties which the people unfortunately are inclined to believe merely to have different degrees of conservatism."

M'ADOO GIVES VIEWS ON ELECTION RESULTS

LOS ANGELES—Democratic success at the polls last Tuesday was inevitable because Republican leaders have failed to interpret correctly the sentiment and opinion of the country, William G. McAdoo, Democratic presidential possibility, charged in a statement issued here today.

"The administration has been reactionary, narrow, provincial and uninspiring from the outset," he declared. "It has made no appeal to the great moral and spiritual forces without which no nation can endure."

"It has given us a wholly materialistic and soulless America. It has been devoid of political morality as evidenced by its whole-hearted support of the seating of Newberry. It has made no appeal to the conscience and spiritual forces of the nation."

KIRBY IN CHARGE OF TRUCK CO.

Gramm Bernstein Receiver Appointed by Federal Court

OFFICERS HERE IN CONTROL

Deputized as Assistants to Handle Affairs

E. G. Kirby, Toledo banker, connected with the Commerce Guaranty Trust and Savings Bank, was in Lima today to take charge of the Gramm-Bernstein Motor Truck Co., for which he has been appointed operative receiver by the federal court Thursday. He immediately deputized B. A. Gramm and Max Bernstein as managers of the property and returned to Toledo. Bernstein and Gramm will represent the receiver here and will continue the business of the company until the reorganization is completed. Action in the federal court was not in the nature of a bankruptcy but rather a suit in equity to protect the claims of various creditors from loss thru the forced sale of property should judgment be given in cases pending in the Allen-co courts. H. O. Bentley, attorney, said Friday.

OPERATION TO CONTINUE

Approximately 95 percent of the creditors have assented to the reorganization scheme as outlined by the larger creditors. This will permit the operation of the company and the gradual paying off of the debts, he said.

Five percent of the creditors have not assented to the new plan and have started suit in the Allen-co courts. Should they obtain judgment it would be possible for them to seize any portion of the company's property to satisfy the debt, Bentley pointed out. This operative receivership will be continued until the reorganization plan has proved acceptable to all parties, Bentley said. This will take perhaps 90 days.

Assets of the corporation as given out by Bentley are well over $2,500,000, while debts, including sums owing to Gramm and Bernstein personally, are around $1,600,000.

Operation of the plant will be continued as usual and an increase in business in the near future is looked for, Bernstein says.

GOVERNORS TO MEET

MADISON, Wis. — The national conference of governors and governors-elect, will be held at White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., December 14 to 16. Miles C. Riley, secretary of the organization, announced today.

HALL-MILLS MURDER PROBE AT STANDSTILL

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J. — The Hall-Mills murder remained a mystery today and there seemed to be no immediate prospect of it being cleared. No official announcement has been made as to the result of the conference in Somerville yesterday between Deputy Attorney General Wilbur A. Mott, in charge of the case, and the foreman of the Somerset-co grand jury.

LOVER IS ACCUSED

Girl Implicates Sweetheart in Mysterious Murder

CLEVELAND — (United Press) A girl today implicated her convict sweetheart and two others in the mysterious murder of Mrs. Helen Silberger, here last May.

Following an all-night grilling at police headquarters the girl pointed her finger at her lover who stood cringing in prison attire, in the detective bureau.

"Why don't you tell the same story you did in the warden's office?" she demanded.

"I know nothing of it," the man replied.

As a result of the girl's story, police Friday were searching the city for the Silberger diamonds, snatched from the hands of the woman after she was slain in her apartment.

A jeweler, suspected of having received the diamonds, is being held with the convict and his two pals. The girl is under surveillance.

MILLIONAIRE IS FINED AND DISENFRANCHISED

HUNTINGTON, W. Va. — C. Fred Edwards, millionaire mattress manufacturer, was fined $1,000 and disenfranchised for three years, following his pleas of nolle contendere to two indictments in circuit court here today in connection with his unsuccessful race for the Republican nomination for United States senator. Edwards was charged with over-expenditure of funds and with filing his expense account after the prescribed time limit.

In his statement filed with the secretary of state, Edwards spent $96,000 in his race. The legal limit is $4,125.

John Marcum, counsel for the defense, following Judge D. E. Matthews' decision, moved for dismissal of Edwards' pleas of nolle contendere.

EDUCATION BILL ATTACKED

Abolishes Church and Private Schools for Youth

MILWAUKEE, Wis. — (United Press) — The Oregon compulsory educational bill is unconstitutional and contradictory to the spirit of America, Rev. A. C. Fox, president of the Marquette University and the only Catholic member of the national committee on college standards of the American Council of Education, declared here today.

The bill stipulates that all children of grade school age must attend public school.

"Oregon voters in abolishing church and private schools for children between the ages of 8 and 16, must have been misinformed and uninformed," Fox said.

"Church and private schools do not want to dominate. They simply want to take care of their own."

"Fair minded Americans will disapprove of the bill and fair minded Americans are in the majority."

"We Catholics maintain that the child must be educated by the parents and the parents alone are responsible for that child to God, not the state."

"The state has a right to see that proper secular education is given to its children, but so long as the education given by private schools is equal in kind and amount and up to the existing standard of the state, it has no right to interfere."

REVOLVER USED IN KILLING IDENTIFIED

HARVE, Mont. — Identification of the revolver used in the slaying of the Rev. Leonard J. Christler and Mrs. Margaret Carleton, here October 27, was completed here today. Former Police Officer Charles Sunday declared the weapon was used by John Jenkins in an assault on L. B. Dance in a pool hall in 1919. Sunday stated the revolver was turned over to him as one of the exhibits in the case.

SEEKS COURT ORDER TO COMPLETE REALTY DEAL

An action to compel the carrying out of a contract made for sale of Bluffton real estate was filed in common pleas court Friday by Lee T. Greding, against Mildred Niswander, Ida Tripplehorn and Jacob Tripplehorn.

The plaintiff asserts that the defendants contracted to sell him Bluffton lots for $7,000 consideration. After the money was deposited in a Bluffton bank, the defendants are alleged to have backed out of the deal.

Greding asks the court to compel enforcement of the contract.

200 DIE IN FIRE

Perish When Flames Envelop Steamer in China

SHANGHAI — (Associated Press) — Two hundred persons are reported to have perished in a fire on the river boat Tashing, which was carrying passengers and produce between Shanghai and Taungming Island, off the mouth of the Yangtze river. The steamer was beached at Whangpoo, near Shanghai.

It virtually was impossible that any foreigners were aboard the vessel. Those who lost their lives were coolies, according to unconfirmed reports.

The heavy laden steamer was traveling from Whangpoo toward Shanghai when the fire broke out. A panic seized the crowded ranks. Passengers and crew tried to flee in a single boat. Bodies are being piled on the beach of the river.

CHAS. O. CUSICK DIES OF PARALYSIS ATTACK

Charles O. Cusick, 47, 110 W. Circular-st., died at City hospital, Friday, of paralysis after an illness of three days.

Services will be at the residence Saturday. His body will be taken to Columbus, Ind., for burial Sunday morning.

He leaves a wife and two sons, L. C. Cusick and J. N. Cusick, both of Lima.

He was a member of American Insurance Union.

Halt Called Over Week End; to be Renewed Tuesday

Enthusiasm marked the meeting of the workers for the Y. W. C. A. $18,000 budget drive at the Trinity M. E. church Friday noon, when it was definitely decided to continue the drive until the quota is reached.

The reports from the ten committees of workers turned in subscriptions of $3,858.79 for Thursday afternoon and Friday morning, making a total of $10,850.80.

The decision to continue the drive was reached, after a survey showed that it had been impossible for the workers to cover all parts of the city thoroughly.

The drive will be held up over the week end and volunteers will report to the Y. W. C. A. Tuesday morning, and will start out to reach all parts of the city, which have not been solicited. Also a complete record has been kept of houses where the residents were not at home when the solicitors called, and a second visit will be made to these homes.

Roy Gregg, of the Gregg Dry Goods company, was the speaker at the luncheon Friday.

One of the largest subscriptions turned in Friday noon was made by the business and professional women's societies of the Y. W. C. A. In these clubs are included most of the factory workers. Miss Ruth Seymour, general secretary, asserted that she was extremely pleased with the gift of $593.39, which she said was made as a genuine sacrifice on the part of many of the girls.

POST TO MEET

Members of William Paul Gallagher Post, No. 96, American Legion, will meet Friday night at headquarters, Main-st. and W. North-st., to discuss final Armistice Day arrangements. Initiation of some 40 legionnaires into the "40 and 8," will be held Saturday night.

CONFINED

Mrs. Lloyd Wilson is confined to her home in Delphos with a serious attack of illness.

RETURN OF $177,000 TO BROTHERHOOD ORDERED

DETROIT — Allen E. Barker, of Detroit, former grand president of the International Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way Employees and Railway Shop Laborers, today was ordered in a decision given by Circuit Judge Henry A. Mendell to return to the brotherhood $177,000 and to give an accounting for $40,000 more he said he expended in organization work.

Suit for return of the entire amount had been brought against Barker by officials of the brotherhood, the organization charging he had converted the union's funds to his own use.

TRUCK KILLS MAN

Son of Allen-co Parents Suffers Death in Michigan

Robert W. Van Cher, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Van Cher, Howell, Mich., died almost instantly Thursday after being run over by an automobile truck in Jackson, Mich., according to advices received here Friday.

Van Cher is said to have stepped off a machine he was driving, into the path of another which was backing up. A wheel passed over his chest. He was rushed to a hospital in an ambulance, but died on the way there.

Besides his parents, he is survived by a wife and a baby daughter. The body will be accompanied here for burial Saturday.

JUDGE APPOINTED

COLUMBUS — Governor Davis today appointed Municipal Judge Walter M. Mahon, Cleveland, to the vacancy on the common pleas bench of Cuyahoga-co, caused by the death of Judge W. E. Neff.

NOTICE K. OF P.

CHANGES IN LABOR BOARD PLANNED

Law Creating Tribunal Declared To Be Faulty

WASHINGTON — (United Press) — With organized labor avowedly out to abolish the railroad labor board in the forthcoming tilt in congress over extension of its powers, friends of the board are preparing a program of "improvements" for the tribunal to submit to congress as soon as it convenes.

Claiming that the board has never since its creation been more than a battle ground for "selfish contending interests" because of deficiencies in the law creating it, those proponents of the board have drafted a two-plied program, enactment of which will be sought to forestall the drastic action desired by labor.

Primarily, a set of fundamental principles a sort of "bill of rights," setting forth the rights of labor, the railroads and the public in all disputes brought before the board, will be asked of congress. This is deemed essential as a foundation on which the board will base all its decisions and indispensable for continuity of policy, just as the constitution is the foundation of all judicial decisions and the source of a single standard of administering justice.

TEXAS WETS WIN

Majority of 20,000 Against Enforcement Act Reported

"SAN FRANCISCO"

Press) — "Wets" has piled up a lead of more than 20,000 against the Wright prohibition enforcement act, according to latest figures with practically five-sixths of the total vote in.

It was not believed that the misadventures could materially alter the result.

MAMMOTH EXPECTED AT SOUTH-TROY BATTLE

(BY MERRICK M. HILL)

When the Blue and Gold trots on to South Field Saturday for the Troy fracas they will line up before one of the largest crowds that ever witnessed a football game in Lima.

The South-Troy battle, from start to finish will take on the air of a gala occasion because of the fact that the conflict has been a part of the Armistice Day celebration. Stunts by various organizations will add "pep" and ginger to the occasion.

The game will start as soon as the Armistice Day parade is over and present indications seem to show that a large number of paraders will follow the American Drum corps to South Field.

Couch Burlette has been pointing his eleven for the game and although the team will enter the fray with a new lineup, the Blue and Gold does not expect to be seriously hampered. South is likely to uncover several new plays, which have been bottled up for the past two weeks, should the contest be in doubt. These new plays have been kept secret and the only known fact is that they include a variety of bewildering passes. How and where these passes start and whether they are successful remains to be seen. Troy, while not making predictions of victory, declares that the battle will be close. The Troy coach saw South in action against Van Wert last Saturday and he has been pointing his aggregation on the Blue and Gold style of play. Revenge is on every Central pigskin totter's tongue in reference to the game at Piqua tomorrow. The team is anxious to win by a big score so that the defeat at Piqua's hands a year ago will be entirely wiped out. Piqua will be remembered as the team that defeated Central last year when the game had been won apparently. Piqua blocked a kick on Central's fifteen yard line and scored a safety, winning the game 8-7. Central will leave for Piqua with every regular except one in the best of condition. Taylor has been both-ward indications the student body will take on more spirit in the future and will be a bigger help to the team than before. Efforts are being made to charter a special car to carry the team and routing delegation to Piqua. At least fifty passengers must announce their intention of making the trip before the car can be obtained. Already 25 have signed up to follow the team, and it is expected that the rest of the required number will be obtained before Saturday morning.

1922 GRID SUPRISES FREQUENT

Football surprises continue to be a weekly occurrence.

The defeat of University of Pennsylvania by Alabama was one of the biggest upsets of the season.

Georgia Tech had beaten Alabama 33 to 7, the Navy had beaten Georgia Tech, and Penn had beaten the Navy. The Alabama game looked like a setup. Penn was defeated 9 to 7.

The Nebraska eleven, the pride of the west, reputed to be the strongest team in the country, was defeated by Syracuse 9 to 6. Syracuse had previously been beaten by Pittsburgh and tied by Penn State.

WAIT FOR THE BREAKS

One of the fundamentals of Harvard's play is to hold the opposition, wait for the break and then grab it with both hands.

In the game with Centre College the southerners played risky football on their 20-yard line. On the second play of the game a fumble gave Harvard the ball on Centre's five-yard line. On the third play Owen went over for a touchdown in less than a minute of play.

That fumble was the break of the game. Harvard took advantage of it. That fumble and the touchdown it made possible for Harvard must have had a terrific effect on the morale of Centre. But for that play Harvard would have had a much harder time winning.

In Harvard's game with Florida, Churchill, on the very first play of the game, took the kickoff on Harvard's 12-yard line and ran through the entire Florida team for a touchdown. That was the break. That play demoralized the Florida team during the greater part of the game.

Often the individual performance of some player makes victory possible. Such has been the case in a number of games this year.

In the game between Syracuse and Nebraska, Right End Thompson of the Nebraska team picked up a fumble and ran 60 yards for a touchdown. That play gave Nebraska a 6 to 3 lead, and until the final minutes of the game seemed to be the winning play. Syracuse finally won, 9 to 6.

YALE SUB WAS STAR

Neidlinger, third string quarterback of Yale, was the hero of the Brown game. He scored all of Yale's points. The first score was the result of a 55-yard run after receiving a forward pass. The second touchdown came after catching a punt and running 52 yards. The third marker was the result of a forward pass and a 70 yard run.

In the Notre Dame-Indiana game Paul Casner did about everything possible. He dropped-kicked from the 45 and 35-yard lines. Scored two touchdowns on runs of 20 and 25 yards from scrimmage. Intercepted a forward pass and ran 35 yards for another score. Kicked three goals from placement after touchdown. Some day.

NEW GRID TEAM ANNOUNCED

Following the game last Sunday between the Lima Apex moose-hunters and the Van Wert Greys, a serious effort has been made during the week to put a high-class grid team in the field.

To this end, the Apex and South Tiger teams have been merged and have started regular practice. The combined teams have started to practice regularly and the first game scheduled by the new organization will be a return match with the Van Wert Greys a week from Sunday.

George Fugh and Leo Ayers will have charge of the team, and have started work to arrange a schedule with teams from all parts of the state, and the rest of the season should see some good fast games played by the Lima aggregation on the home grounds.

The first practice was held Thursday night at the corner of Kibby and Pierce-sts, and a majority of players of both teams reported. Two combinations of both teams will not only add strength to the first eleven, bench, which is ready to jump into the breach at any time, changes can be made, which should result in a string of victories for the Lima squad.

Fugh, who is arranging the schedule has announced that he is arranging games with Celina, Marion and Sidney teams, and would like to arrange games with those teams. He also announced that any players who would like to try out, should report to Ayers at once.

GRIDIRON FEATS OF 1922

WITH a majority of important games to come, some very remarkable runs have already featured the football season of 1922.

Long runs after getting the ball from scrimmage, receiving or intercepting a forward pass, or catching a punt or kickoff provide the bill of fare of the game.

Here are most of the sensational runs of the year that resulted in touchdowns:

Mt. Union-Miami Game Expected To Produce Thrills

COLUMBUS, O.,—Armistice Day will find Ohio Conference football teams fighting only one major battle. Numerous interesting games between various teams were expected but the single contest in which a leading position in the conference standing may be affected will be between Mt. Union and Miami at Oxford. Mt. Union holds the lead jointly with Ohio Wesleyan and Oberlin, but the Wesleyan eleven will meet Michigan Agricultural College at Lansing in a non-conference game and Oberlin should have little trouble in adding another victory to its unbroken string at the expense of Centre College.

Denison, wreckers of the hopes of at least two title contenders, will have no championship aspirations upon which to work tomorrow in facing Cincinnati at Cincinnati but a hard contest was expected.

Akron, regarded as one of the stronger of the conference teams, was expected to turn in another victory over Heidelberg at Tiffin and Reservo, which had its first taste of anything but defeat last Saturday, has hopes of another triumph against Ohio Northern at Ada tomorrow during a home-coming game.

After two consecutive defeats, Wittenberg was expected to turn the tables against Oberlin at Springfield. Oberlin, however has a fast and smooth-running combination and may give the Springfield team some trouble.

A game between Kenyon and Wooster at Wooster, completes the day's conference activities. Wooster, although defeated by Denison a week ago, is out to avenge defeat at the hands of the Gambier eleven last year and is regarded as the favorite.

Wilmington, a strong non-conference eleven, is scheduled to play a doubleheader this week-end. The team is expected to use the ever-ready game with success against Salem at Salem, W. Va., today but expect a harder with Georgetown at Georgetown, Ky., tomorrow.

Two West Virginia teams will have Ohio opponents tomorrow, Ohio playing the strong Bethany College team at Bethany, W. Va., and West Virginia journeying to Clarksburg for its annual game with West Virginia Wesleyan.

Baldwin-Wallace will play Dayton University at Dayton. Hiram and Muskingum will be idle.

First "Big Three" Conflict On Armistice Day Program

(BY HENRY L. FARRELL) NEW YORK.—Some of the biggest battles of the season are carded for tomorrow's "Armistice Day" football program.

Battles between old traditional rivals and the first of the conflicts between the "Big Three," as well as several fine inter-sectional combats are the features of the best card of the year to date. The biggest battles of the day are:

Harvard vs. Princeton at Cambridge.

Pittsburgh vs. Pennsylvania at Philadelphia.

Dartmouth vs. Cornell at New York.

Notre Dame vs. the Army at West Point.

Georgetown vs. Georgia Tech at Atlanta.

Harvard is regarded by many critics as the most powerful eleven of the east and one that compares favorably with the teams of the old when the Crimson was "the" power of the gridiron.

Princeton, on the other hand, started the season with perhaps the poorest prospects of any major team of the east. The Tigers have come fast, however, and while there are few that look for anything but a Harvard victory, the experts all expect a grand fight from the Tigers.

Penn will meet the second big test of the season against Pittsburgh. The Philadelphians look upon Pitt, Cornell and Penn State as their most deadly rivals and this first of their three big battles is sure to bring out everything Johnny Heisman has taught them. Pittsburgh hasn't been living to old Pitt standards this season, but they've been pointing for this game and Penn does not consider them anything of an easy thing.

Cornell in Dartmouth gets the first big test of the year. Gil Doble must have a great team at Ithaca, even if the "Big Red" has had rather easy going. Any team that comes close to a "point a minute" must be a good one, and Dartmouth's fight, and that's one of the main things in football.

When Notre Dame lost virtually a whole team last fall, eastern critics made light of the plight with the theory "Knute Rockne" always had another good team. And he has. The Hoosiers may not have the spec-

(BY BILLY EVANS) Is a slugging batsman who can hit home runs more valuable than a star pitcher who can win a majority of his games?

In a measure that question was answered five or six years ago by Ed Barrows, who was then managing the Boston team of the American League.

At that time Babe Ruth was generally considered the best left hander in the Johnsonian organization. He could be depended upon to win at least 20 games a season.

All of a sudden Ruth began to show an inclination to hit home runs. The inclination grew until Ruth became the most feared batsman in the American League. His ability to hit home runs began to overshadow his pitching.

The fans enthused much more when Ruth broke up a ball game by hitting a home run with a couple on than when he scored a shutout.

That feeling on the part of fandom caused Manager Barrows to do some tall thinking. Would it be advisable to use Ruth every day as an outfielder and add his home-run punch to the strength of the team or use him every fourth day as a pitcher?

Barrows decided that Ruth, the best left hander in the American League, should forget his pitching and become Ruth the slugging outfielder.

A great many people ridiculed the idea. They thought Barrows was an average of 349. Twenty-two of the hits were home runs.

As a pitcher he worked in 14 games, winning 13. The only defeat he suffered was at the hands of the Rochester club.

Years ago Bentley received a trial with the Washington club but was let out. In 1917 the Boston Red Sox drafted him but he entered the military service and was never taken on by the Sox.

Just as Ruth, wonder batsman of the New York Yankees, begins to fade John McGraw of the New York Giants purchases Jack Bentley, the "Babe Ruth" of the minors.

Bentley is a crack left-handed pitcher, best known for his ability to hit home runs. His case is exactly similar to that of Ruth when he was with Boston.

Where will McGraw use Bentley, as a pitcher or first baseman? WILL PITCH FOR GIANTS McGraw has already gone on record as saying that Bentley would be a member of the Giants' pitching staff. If such is the case it is a certainty that he will also play the role of pinch hitter when not on the rubber.

Jack Dunn, owner and manager of the Baltimore team, who sold Bentley to the Giants, never could reach a decision in Bentley's case. As a result he had Bentley playing first when not pitching.

Last season Bentley took part in 153 games. He made 246 hits for

O. N. U. Homecoming Set For Saturday

Ohio Northern University will celebrate its home coming day Saturday when the varsity football team stacks up against the gridgers from Western Reserve. Reserve broke a losing streak last week when they ran through Hiram College 13 to 0. Reserve looked good and used nothing but straight football to fool the Northern scouts.

Northern's defeat at the hands of Akron caused quite a shake up in the Orange and Black team. With Fisher off the team and Greer on crutches Northern has but two half-backs and both of those have been playing left half.

There has been quite a shake up in the line in an attempt to gain weight in the line. Adler has been working at a tackle and is proving to be a good line man being valuable also as a kicker. He can be called out of the line to either punt or dropkick.

In the face of all this Coach Newton is confident that he can place an eleven in the field that will repeat last year's victory over the Clevelanders who are coming down determined to avenge the 6 to 0 stinging that they were handed on their own field last fall.

Owners May Put Ban On Lively Ball In Coming Season

PHILADELPHIA.—Officials of the factory in this city that supplies the major leagues with baseballs, hint that the ball may not be as lively next year.

The fact that over 1,000 home runs were made in the two major leagues has caused certain agitation against the lively ball. Some of the mag-nates feel that the free hitting that has featured the games for the past three years will soon have robbed the home run of much of its thrill, since it's getting so common.

While it is conceded that the public likes free hitting rather than air-tight pitching, the mag-nates seem to think the hitting end of the game is being overdone.

It is said that the matter will be freely discussed at the coming major league meeting, and it wouldn't be at all surprising if the order went out to slow up the ball, which after all simply means that the yarn will not be so tightly wound around the cork center.

It is the yarn and the way it is placed on the ball that produces the liveliness of the sphere rather than the cork center.

Notre Dame And ROCKNE LOSES Army Clash

NEW YORK, (United Press).—Notre Dame and the Army which are establishing a traditional east-mid-west inter-sectional classic, will furnish the feature game of the week-end football program tomorrow.

Notre Dame, ranking as one of the greatest football institutions of the country, has sent an undefeated eleven to West Point to meet one of the best rounded and most powerful teams that has ever carried the Army emblem.

It should be a game for the gods with Notre Dame favored only because the Hoosiers have become addicted to the habit of springing something new every year on the plains of the Academy and beating the soldiers.

CHICAGO—Tommy Gibbons, St. Paul light heavyweight, has asked for a chance to take the place of Battling Siki against Joe Beckett, English heavyweight.

SUCCESS OF FILM COMICS DEPENDS ON UNITY

(BY ESTHER WAGNER)

A MOVIE comic must possess dramatic unity to be effective. The story, the acting and the characterization must proceed to some conclusion and if the comic is to make more than a passing impression.

The truth of this was brought home during a review of Lloyd Hamilton's next comic, "The Educator."

Hamilton still rests a rung or two below Keaton because his comics do not possess this unity.

Chaplin writes his own stories. His idea of the point to be scored and the way in which it is to be scored is definitely established before the camera starts grinding. That, like a football captain who plans a series of offensive plays against a certain team. Lloyd starts a certain attack for a previously planned situation but he is likely to change the course of things many times before the picture is completed. However, the changes are in line with the general scheme that has been worked out beforehand. The goal to be reached is always in sight.

Chaplin's shuffle is no funnier than Hamilton's toe-knee-hip-shoulder-gait. Keaton's frozen face is no more grotesque than the expansive map of Hamilton. Lloyd has the appearance of an unsophisticated youth, but Hamilton's countenance is often as innocent as a baby's.

Hamilton has made more comics than any of the other three, but he hasn't learned as much.

"Miss America" Scores Heavily at the Faurot

THE zenith of vaudeville performance at the Faurot is reached this week-end, with Miss Mary Katherine Campbell, a Columbus girl, appearing as the headline attraction.

Miss Campbell was chosen at Atlantic City as the most beautiful girl in America, and was christened "Miss America." She is touring the larger cities of Ohio, under the direction of R. F. Keith, and her winning personality and fresh beauty are everywhere attracting huge crowds.

Miss Campbell is surrounded by a well-staged singing act, featuring Floyd Garrett, and appears in charming frocks, further enhancing her unusual beauty. After one witnesses the young lady, one can heartily agree that she is the living embodiment of feminine pulchritude.

Hal Kiter's Own Sketch at the New Orpheum

BEHIND THE TRENCHEES," a patriotic sketch written by Hal Kiter, star comedian with the Billy Allen Co., is the feature this week-end at the New Orpheum theatre. Mr. Leroy Batie and Mr. Gilbert Black, two principals in the cast, are seen in pleasing roles of private and corporal, respectively, while a well-staged tableau, "A Yank's Home in 1918," features the three adorable kiddies, Baby Dolly, Baby Ruth and Baby Betty Jean, in the roles of grandchildren of a World War veteran. The main offering on the bill, "My Wintergarden Girl," is a musical comedy with tuneful melodies, novel dances and enjoyable specialties. In this little divertissement, Mr. Kiter is seen as Solomon Applebait, a not-too-happy husband, while F. Hart and Jack Rowles in character roles, help along the merriment.

The entire program, effective again today and again on Saturday, is sure to give New Orpheum patrons a most enjoyable hour and a half.

Elsa Ryan in "The Intimate Strangers"

ONE of the most interesting attractions of the theatrical season will appear at the Faurot Nov. 13, when Augustus Pitou presents the delightful comedienne, Miss Elsa Ryan, as the star in Booth Tarkington's latest and best comedy, "The Intimate Strangers," which ran all last year in New York, Chicago and Boston. The play, as is always the case with a Tarkington offering, is clean and wholesome, abounding in delicious, whimsical and gently satirical humor. Its dialogue is brilliant and sparkling with wit and keen observation of American family life, and its plot and settings are refreshingly different. In the leading role, Miss Ryan has one of the most delightful parts of her artistic career, and in it has, it is said, achieved a veritable triumph. A fine supporting company, always necessary to properly depict Mr. Tarkington's unusual characterizations, is a feature of the remarkable entertainment. The complete scenic production used in the metropolitan cities will be seen here.

THEATRE DIRECTORY

VICTORY IS WON THRU INDEPENDENT VOTERS, JUDGE ALLEN ASSERTS

CLEVELAND — Judge Florence E. Allen, newly elected woman member of Ohio's supreme court today issued the following statement:

"This victory would have been impossible without the support of the independent press and the independent voters of the state."

"We conducted a campaign with very limited funds, without organization, and against the definite opposition of the two political parties. The issue of my election was not important; but the issue of the election of a non-partisan candidate had real significance, even more so when the election was to the supreme court where party politics plays especial havoc.

"The fact that 490,000 voters disregarded party lines and gave us their support, marks a real advance towards an independent judiciary."

Starting Sunday! EXTRA! LOOK! LOOK!
THE GREAT SAN FRANCISCO FIRE!
SIXTEEN YEARS AGO, APRIL 14th, 1906, San Francisco was visited by one of the most appalling catastrophes in American history. HUNDREDS OF THOUSANDS WERE HOMELESS—Property worth millions of dollars destroyed. The dynamiting of buildings in the path of the flames, the water supply cut off—and the golden gate faced dangers of pestilence and famine. A FEAT FOR YOUR EYES.

SHORT SHAVINGS

Gene Lippincott tells of a friend who complained that he choked on a feather while eating chicken at a dinner dance.

As it was a tall feather he decided it wasn't served with the chicken. "I think," he said, "I bit it off the hat of the girl I danced with last."

Bob Horn, confectioner, tells of a little girl who lost her cherished roller skates. Her father offered a reward to any child in the neighborhood who would find them. "She found them herself," he reports, and collected the reward.

Harold Crane, 533 Albert-st was on his way to his office downtown when he came upon a neighbor who had climbed a slender tree in front of his house and was shaking it as hard as he could. Crane stood to watch, and to wonder. "I've got so durn tired raking up the leaves every morning that I fell during the night!" he said. "So I made up my mind to shake them all down, once and for all."

Gail Gross says he does not like to walk along the street at this season of the year, and stuff his feet thru the dry leaves on the sidewalk. He never regarded this as perilous sport until lately.

Then while he was scuffling thru a pile of leaves of some depth he stumbled over a large dog which lay almost concealed among them. "It howled when I stepped on its tail," he says, "and jumped up so quickly it upset me on my head and bent my new fall hat."

THE HOPE OF THE WORLD

The war of 1914 had half the nations of the world in the dust. Their homes, their industries, their peace must be restored by the rising generation. In them is the hope of the world.

To make motherhood easier, to secure for every baby a clean bill of health and a fair start in life—that is the problem.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is an excellent medicine for mothers and future mothers. For fifty years this medicine has been used successfully in all surgical cases of women's diseases.—Adv.
